

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Proceedings of the Twenty-ninth Convention.

GARDEN CITY, May 28th, 1895.

Tuesday, the 28th day of May, the named in the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island for the Annual Convention of the same, a number of the Clergy and Laity assembled at ten o'clock for Divine Service in the Cathedral, Garden City, the place appointed by the Bishop.

The Communion Office was begun by the Rev. Mr. BIRD, Acting Precentor, the Rev. Dr. DROWNE reading the Epistle and the Rev. Dr. HASKINS the Gospel.

The Bishop delivered his Annual Address.

During the singing of the Offertory Anthem, the alms were received for the Missionary Work of the Diocese.

The Bishop proceeded then with the Communion Office, and was assisted in the distribution by the Rev. Dr. MORRISON.

At the close of the Services, the members of the Convention assembled in the Crypt, the Bishop in the chair.

The Secretary proceeded to call the names of the Clergy of the Diocese entitled to seats, when seventy-five answered to their names and took their seats.*

The Churches entitled to representation were then called over, and the Lay Delegates presented their certificates, which were examined by the Secretary and a committee appointed by the President, viz., Mr. WM. FLOYD-JONES and the Hon. JOHN A. NICHOLS.

The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed were

A Constitutional quorum being present, the President declared the Convention duly organized for business.

On motion of Archdeacon ALSOP, the vote by ballot was unanimously dispensed with, and the Rev. T. STAFFORD DROWNE, D.D., was re-elected Secretary.

The Secretary nominated Rev. Dr. COOPER as Assistant Secretary, who was thereupon re-elected by the Convention.

On motion of Archdeacon ALSOP, the vote by ballot was unanimously dispensed with, and Mr. ALEXANDER E. ORR was elected Treasurer.

On motion of the Hon. JOHN A. NICHOLS, the following minute was adopted:

This Convention has learned, with sincere regret, of the resignation of Mr. WILLIAM H. MALE, who for many years has been Treasurer of the Diocese. The Delegates desire to record their high appreciation of his valuable and arduous services, and to say for him, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

On motion, it was ordered that a copy of the above minute be sent to Mr. MALE.

The Hon. JOHN A. KING addressed some fitting remarks to the Convention on the long, faithful and efficient services of the late Treasurer, Mr. WILLIAM H. MALE, who resigned his position on account of his long absence abroad.

On motion, the Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted as the Rules of Order of this body.

The President announced the Seventh Rule, providing for the admission of persons not members to the sittings of the Convention.

The President then appointed the Standing Committee

On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches.

Rev. CHARLES W. HOMER.
Mr. WILLIAM NICHOL.

Hon. AUGUSTUS VAN WYCK.
Mr. FRANK C. LANG.

The hour having arrived, the Convention took a recess for luncheon.

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESE.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Long Island, respectfully report the following meetings and acts :

June 11th, 1894 : This being the first meeting of the Committee since the annual Convention of the Diocese, the Secretary of the Convention certified that the Rev. T. Stafford Drowne, D.D., and the Hon. Augustus Van Wyck, were re-elected members of the Standing Committee for the ensuing four years. The Committee proceeded to organize by the election of the Rev. Charles H. Hall, D.D., D.C.L., LL.D., as President, and the Rev. T. Stafford Drowne, D.D., as Secretary. It was ordered that the stated meetings during the year be held on the Mondays of the Ember Weeks. Canonical Testimonials in behalf of Edwin Dunning Weed and Henry Quimby, applying to be admitted as candidates for Holy Orders, were signed.

July 16th, 1894: The Bishop of the Diocese having laid before this Committee as his Council of Advice, several communications relating to the need and desirability of a Mission on Shelter Island Heights, with the earnest request of the people there for the regular services of the Church, it was deemed advisable that consent be given provided that the Mission be canonically established as a Mission, in connection with St. Mary's parish, already established on another part of the island. The proper testimonials in behalf of Charles R. Abbot and Henry Newman Lawrence, applying to be admitted as candidates for Holy Orders, were signed.

September 24th, 1894: The following communication was received from the Bishop, in compliance with the action taken by the Convention last May, suggesting an interval of a year of rest and recreation :

To the Standing Committee :

Intending to be absent from my Diocese and from the country for several months, I hereby authorize the Standing Committee to act as the Ecclesiastical Authority thereof until my return. It is understood that the Bishop of East Carolina, under the direction and at the request of the Standing Committee will, during the next Spring, make such visitations of Parishes as may be required. Should he fail to do so for any reason, the Standing Committee will supply the necessary Episcopal Services without waiting for any word from me.

[SEAL] A. N. LITTLEJOHN,

SEE HOUSE, GARDEN CITY,

Bishop of Long Island.

August 15th, 1894.

A resolution was adopted, that applications from parishes desiring the Visitation of a Bishop, or from clergymen desirous of being received into the Diocese or of being transferred from it, or from other persons asking to be licensed as Lay Readers or to become Postulants in the Diocese, be received and the proper certificates executed by the President and Secretary.

Canonical Testimonials in behalf of Lionel G. W. Marony desiring to be admitted as a candidate for Holy Orders were signed, October 8th, 1894: Canonical Testimonials in behalf of Vincent Edward Judson, M.D., applying to be admitted as a candidate for Holy Orders were signed.

December 3d, 1894: Canonical Testimonials in behalf of Charles Bennett Johnes, applying to be admitted to the Sacred Order of Deacons ; and in behalf of the Rev. Robert Alexander Tufft, the Rev. Frederick Alexander McMillen, and the Rev. Adrian R. B. Hegeman, applying to be admitted to the Sacred Order of Priests, were signed.

The Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Delaware, was invited to ordain them on the Fourth Sunday in Advent, December 23d, at the Cathedral, Garden City.

January 14th, 1895: Canonical Testimonials in behalf of Charles R. Abbot and H. Newman Lawrence, candidates for the priesthood, applying under Canon 7, § 3, of the Digest, to be admitted to Deacon's Orders, were signed. The Rt. Rev. the Bishop of New York, on being requested to ordain them, appointed the time and place as the third Sunday morning after Epiphany, January 27th, at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn.

The president having announced that a circular had been sent to the clergy of the Diocese with the view of making arrangements for confirmations in their parishes, and that most of those desiring the rite wished it administered during the season of Lent, whereupon it was deemed best to ask the Bishop of East Carolina to begin his visitations early in March.

Mr. W. H. Male, having felt obliged on account of the pressure of business and his contemplated absence abroad, to resign the office of Treasurer of the Diocese, Mr. Alexander E. Orr was duly appointed in his place, until the next Convention.

January 21st, 1895: The Rev. Dr. Hall having recently signified his desire, on account of his health, to withdraw from the Standing Committee, his resignation was reluctantly accepted : and the following Preamble and Resolution were unanimously adopted, and ordered to be suitably engrossed and signed by the President pro tem and Secretary and presented to Dr. Hall :

Whereas, The Rev. CHARLES H. HALL, D.D., D.C.L., LL.D., for twenty-five years a member of, and continuously Chairman of the Standing Committee of this Diocese, has now, by reason of impaired health, tendered his resignation of such membership and asks the Committee to relieve him from its wearing and burdensome duties, therefore

Resolved, That in accepting the resignation of Doctor Hall the Committee does so with the deepest and most painful regret, every member of which, has a realizing sense of how much the Diocese for its successful administration, is indebted to the sound judgment, the canonical and theological learning, the wise counsel as well as the unceasing labors of our much beloved chairman, to whom our hearts go out in profound sympathy under this (we hope temporary) infliction.

The Committee appointed the Rev. J. Carpenter Smith, S.T.D., as President of the Standing Committee, for the remainder of the Conventional year.

February 4th, 1895: The Rev. Henry C. Swentzel, Rector of St. Luke's Church, having been nominated to fill the vacancy on the Standing Committee, was duly elected a member thereof.

Canonical Testimonials in behalf of William Elder Ringwalt, applying to be admitted as a Candidate for Holy Orders, were signed.

This Committee acting as the Episcopal Authority of the Diocese, having for a second time, received from the Rev. David Vaughan Gwilym, Priest, a communication renouncing the Ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and having learned moreover that he had connected himself with another religious body, in accordance with the provisions of Canon V. Title II of the Digest, resolved that he should be formally deposed from the Ministry of this Church; and having requested, in the absence of the Bishop, the neighboring Bishop of New York to pronounce the sentence of deposition, it was accordingly done in Grace Church, N. Y., on the 18th of February, 1895.

March 25th, 1895: Canonical Testimonials having been received from the Diocese of Indiana, and the desire of the Church in that Diocese for the consecration of the Rev. John Hazen White of Faribault, Minn., Bishop-elect, consent was given to his consecration as Bishop of Indiana, and the proper Testimonial was signed.

Canonical Testimonials in behalf of Rev. Walter I. Stecher applying to be admitted to the Sacred Order of Priests were signed.

April 27th, 1895: Canonical Testimonials having been received in behalf of John B. Kalaria, desiring to be admitted as a Candidate for Holy Orders, it was ordered that the proper Testimonial to be exhibited to the Bishop be signed.

The summary of the acts of the Standing Committee, acting as the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese for the last eight and one-half months, since August 15th, 1894, to May 1st, 1895, were as follows :

Licensed as Lay Readers.....	14 persons
Admitted as Postulants.....	2
Candidates for orders admitted.....	7
Candidates recommended for Deacon's Orders ...	3
Candidates recommended for Priest's Orders.....	3
Clergymen received into the Diocese.....	12
Clergymen appointed to Cures.....	16
Clergymen resigned their positions.....	18
Clergymen dismissed from the Diocese.....	15
Deposed from the Ministry of this Church.....	1

The names and dates connected with each of the foregoing particulars will be printed in the Journal in the accustomed place.

The Bishop read his Annual Address.

The Very Rev. DEAN COX presented and read the

Report

OF THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESE.

In presenting their annual report, the Missionary Committee find great cause for thankfulness and encouragement in the good work that has been accomplished in the face of the financial depression of the past two years. The meetings of the several Archdeaconries have been regularly held, affording to the clergy and lay delegates abundant opportunity for personal familiarity with the missionary work, and for awakening that livelier interest which naturally follows from such personal knowledge. It needs only a more general attendance at these meetings, in accordance with the injunction of the Missionary Canon, proportionately to increase this interest.

A synopsis of the reports of the several Archdeaconries is presented.

The Southern Archdeaconry of Brooklyn,

Is assessed for Diocesan Missions $1570, which it has paid in full, and in addition to its allowance from the Missionary Committee of $1030, has raised and expended for special objects $664.06, and closes the year with a balance of $207.36 in its treasury. It has aided seven parishes and mission stations.

St. Andrew's Church, Fourth Avenue and Fiftieth Street. A commodious Chapel has been erected on the ground purchased last year, and the parishioners have contributed $2133.61 to the building fund; the sale of the old Church brought $2495.25, and outside gifts have been received, amounting to $406.43. The whole property is now valued at $24,000, with an indebtedness of $12,000. The rapid increase of population makes this the most promising mission of the Archdeaconry.

St. John's, Fort Hamilton. Regular Services with a good attendance and a flourishing Sunday-school are reported, in the face of serious losses by removal. Contributions for current expenses, $687.86.

St. Jude's, Blythebourne. A new Parish House is building. The Sunday-school more than fills the Church. Contributions, $710.74.

Holy Apostles, Windsor Terrace. This is a Mission of St. Paul's Church, Flatbush, which gives its statistics in its Parochial Report. The rapid growth of the population and the congregation gives promise of this Mission soon becoming an independent parish.

St. Margaret's Mission reports its work among the Italians progressing; the Sunday-school is conducted by the personal service and financial aid of Mr. F. C. Moore of New York.

The Church of the Advent, Bensonhurst. This Mission having become entirely self-supporting, is about to be incorporated as a Parish, and has elected the Rev. H. H. Bogert, its rector. Four lots costing $2400 have been bought and paid for, for a Parish House.

St. John's, Parkville. Since the resignation of the Rev. Mr. Losee on April 1st, the services have been conducted by a lay reader,

There are other important points, which only await larger offerings to be occupied and work done at once will be of especial value in view of the large and rapidly multiplying population of this Archdeaconry.

The Northern Archdeaconry of Brooklyn.

It is with very great regret that we have to report a serious financial deficiency in this Archdeaconry. But the treasurer reports that of the amount of $1500, for which the Archdeaconry was assessed, only $1042 have been received ; consequently he has made personal advances to meet the stipends of the Missionaries, who are dependent upon the support pledged to them by the Archdeaconry ; and is still in arrears to them. And in sending in his report, the treasurer asks the pointed question, "Are our Churches a failure?" and answers it, "In this Archdeaconry it looks so." Whatever may be the explanation of this failure, it certainly cannot be ascribed to any lack of earnest and faithful effort on the part of the Archdeacon. The report of the treasurer, which will be printed in the Journal of the Convention, will show how so serious a deficiency has been allowed to occur. Notwithstanding this deficiency which the Archdeacon deplores there is somewhat to give thanks for. St. Michael's Church, in charge of the Rev. F. E. West, has had the best year in its history. The Sunday-school has grown from 60 to 250 scholars. The congregation at all the services greatly increased. Last September the Archdeacon established a new Mission on Jamaica Avenue, near Crescent Street, called the Church of the Transfiguration. A Sunday-school of 60 scholars soon gathered. Good congregations attend the services which are conducted by a lay reader, with occasional help from the clergy. A clergyman should be placed in charge of this most promising Mission. St. Timothy's Church is having a continuous and steady growth under the administration of the Rev. Mr. Stecher. St. David's is closed solely on account of a lack of means. The territory of the Archdeaconry is large and opportunities almost unequalled for doing a noble work, but without money and men they cannot be utilized. There is a decided feeling among the Brooklyn clergy that we have not yet attained the best system for managing our Missionary work. They feel that it is a misfortune to have two Archdeaconries in Brooklyn, and many have expressed the opinion that the arrangement of New York is what is needed here. An Archdeacon should give his entire time to Archdeaconry work; and not take time for which he is paid to serve the church of which he is rector, and practically become rector of several missions with the title of Archdeacon. An Archdeacon without a parish, for the entire city, might be an improvement on the present system.

Archdeaconry of Suffolk.

The Associate Mission ceased to exist on November 1st, 1894. Grace Church, Riverhead, having received by legacy a house for a rectory, and an endowment toward the rector's salary, the Archdeacon resigned that parish, which, together with the Church of the Redeemer, Mattituck, was given in charge to the Rev. R. M. Edwards, the Archdeacon retaining the Church of the Holy Trinity, Greenport. His report embraces the statistics of nineteen Parishes and Mission stations, and shows a large measure of well organized and faithful work in his laborious and not very encouraging field. Regular Services with frequent communions are maintained. Guilds and Missionary Associations are formed, and the contributions, although individually small in amount, are perseveringly made for Diocesan and General Objects, as well as for Parochial maintenance.

The Church of the Holy Trinity, Greenport, having been put in good repair, was consecrated on July 17th. The Services in old Caroline Church, Setauket, are reported as remarkably well attended, especially in the morning; 16 were confirmed, the largest class ever presented. The contributions for all objects aggregated $1280.31.

A large confirmation is also reported at St. Mary's, Ronkonkoma.

The treasurer reported on April 30th, that the Missionary Committee owed the Archdeaconry a balance of $200 of the appropriation, placing him in arrears to several of the Missions. The Archdeaconry has paid its assessment of $650, and relies upon the renewal of the appropriation of $1900 to meet the obligations which it has assumed for the current year.

The Archdeacon gives the following summary of the results of the work done under the charge of the Archdeaconry. Baptisms: Adults, 6; Children, 40; Total, 46. Confirmations, 31. Communicants, 318; Sunday-school Scholars, 219; Teachers, 33; Contributions: for Parochial purposes, $3286.20; for Diocesan, $175.21, for General, $68.23; Total, $3529.64.

Archdeaconry of Queens.

In the Archdeaconry of Queens, an active Missionary work is carried on by the Cathedral and some of the stronger Parishes. The Archdeaconry has given aid to four points, St. Thomas', Ravenswood, Willet's Point, St. Thomas', Farmingdale, and Steinway. At Ravenswood, the rector reports 21 Baptisms; Communicants, 24; a Sunday-school of 9 teachers, and 85 scholars. This is an organized parish, but essentially a Missionary field, and a hard one. The work at Willet's Point is among the officers and soldiers of the garrison, and reports 5 Baptisms, 3 Confirmed, and 15 Communicants.

The Mission at Steinway was originated and is entirely supported by the Archdeaconry, at an annual expense of $650, including the rent of the hall, and the stipend of the Missionary, the Rev. Mr. Kuehn. He reports 49 Baptisms, 3 Marriages, 18 Burials, and a class preparing for Confirmation. A Sunday-school of 9 teachers and 162 scholars, and 562 families visited. The population is almost entirely German, and may receive much pastoral labor, with not very decided or tangible results. But we cannot neglect so large and important a community; and the Missionary by his patient and faithful ministrations, has gained the general respect and confidence of the people.

Referring, briefly, for information to the Missionary work not directly under the care of the Archdeaconry; of the Cathedral Missions, the Church of the Ascension, Rockville Centre, has built a commodious Rectory; St. Joseph's, Queens, has completed a very attractive Church; and the Transfiguration, Freeport, has built a commodious Parish House, one floor of which is fitted and occupied for worship.

The Rev. Mr. Wiley of South Oyster Bay, has established a strong Mission, and built a Chapel at Central Park. The Rev. Mr. Bryan, of Richmond Hill, has inaugurated a Mission at Glendale, for which a wealthy resident pays the rent and furnishing of a hall, where is gathered on Sunday evening, a congregation of from 70 to 100 persons, and has set apart $50,000 for the erection of a Church as a memorial to a beloved daughter lately deceased.

It will be seen that the Church in Queens County is actively aggressive, and has a most important field, rapidly growing in population, and in need of Christian influences. The Archdeaconry has paid its assessment of $1460, and has expended nearly $500 in addition to its appropriation of $750, but has no balance in its treasury for the opening year.

Archdeacon of Queens.

The several Archdeacons presented their

Reports

OF THE MISSIONARY OPERATIONS OF THE DIOCESE.

I.—The Northern Archdeaconry of Brooklyn.

The Northern Archdeaconry of Brooklyn has for the first time failed to raise the amount of its assessment by the Missionary Committee, which was $1,500, the total amount contributed by the Churches in its jurisdiction being but $1,042. Some of the parishes refused to give anything for Diocesan Missions the past year, and others gave much less than heretofore, which accounts for the deficit. The Archdeacon did everything in his power to increase the fund; printed and written appeals were sent to each rector, and in many cases calls were made to urge the cause of Missions, resulting in but indifferent success. However, three of the four Missions in the care of the Archdeaconry—St. Michael's, St. Timothy's, and the Transfiguration—have prospered encouragingly. St. Michael's, under the Rev. W. E. West, is doing a splendid work. The Sunday-school has grown from sixty to over two hundred scholars, and the congregation and offerings have also very largely increased.

St. Timothy's, under the faithful administration of the Rev. W. I. Stecher, continues to grow, notwithstanding the burden of a heavy debt.

St. David's has been closed for some months, principally because of an unfortunate experience with the late clergyman-in-charge, who left our communion for the Baptist denomination. All things considered, the Archdeacon is of the opinion that this Mission should be permanently closed.

Last September a new Mission, known as the Transfiguration, was begun on Jamaica Avenue near Crescent Street. It occupies a rented house, the parlors of which are fitted up as a Chapel. This is a most promising field. Services are maintained by a lay reader. Good congregations attend, and there is a Sunday-school of sixty children. The Mission pays its own expenses. Shortly after this work was commenced, the Archdeacon visited the Mission and baptized fifteen children and adults. A clergyman should be in charge of this Mission.

The term of the Archdeacon having expired at the close of this convention year, the Rev. Dr. Darlington was elected his successor. The Archdeacon wishes to express his thanks to the brethren for their sympathy and kindness while he occupied the office; and also the hope that the new Archdeacon may be accorded even more generous consideration and support.

W. H. FLEEMAN, Treasurer.

II.—The Southern Archdeaconry of Brooklyn.

The Southern Archdeaconry of Brooklyn was charged by the Missionary Committee with $1570 for the general missionary work of the Diocese. This amount has been paid in full. It received from the Missionary Committee for work within its own borders $1030.00, which it has expended, and also $664.06 additional for special objects. In spite of the financial distress of the year, the Treasurer reports a balance of $207.36 with which to begin the work of the next quarter, and $452.06 in the special donation account.

Its care and support have been extended to seven parishes and mission stations.

I. ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, FOURTH AVENUE AND FIFTIETH STREET, Rev. W. N. Ackley, Rector.—This, although not a mission of the Archdeaconry, is largely the fruit of its past labors, and still receives some help towards its building fund. During the year a commodious chapel has been erected on the ground purchased in 1894, adjoining the site of the future church; the lot has been paid for. The whole property is now valued at $24,000, subject to an indebtedness of $12,000. During the past year, the parishioners have contributed $2133.61 towards the Building Fund. Outside contributors have helped them to the amount of $406.43. The sale of the old church has brought $2495.25. The constant influx of new population makes this the most promising field within the limits of the Archdeaconry, and gives assurance of a large, vigorous, self-supporting church there in the immediate future.

II. ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, FORT HAMILTON, Rev. F. D. Hoskins, Rector.—Constant services, and a flourishing Sunday-school are reported from this Parish. There have been some serious losses to the congregation by the removal of families, but the average attendance has been good. The growth of the city towards Fort Hamilton gives promise that the day of small things here is nearly over, and that, with the increase of population, this old church, the third oldest in Brooklyn, will become an important centre of Christian activity. The Archdeaconry appropriates $250 towards the support of the Rector, to which there has been added by the parish $687.36.

III. ST. JUDE'S CHURCH, BLYTHEBOURNE, Rev. R. B. Snowden, Rector.—A new parish house is in process of erection. The congregations have increased. The vested choir has been well sustained. The Lenten Services were well attended. The Sunday-school more than fills the church. The Parish has contributed, for all purposes, $710.74. It has received from the Archdeaconry, $243.75.

IV. THE MISSION OF THE HOLY APOSTLES, WINDSOR TERRACE, in charge of the Rev. G. F. G. Hoyt, acting as assistant to the Rev. T. G. Jackson, Rector of St. Paul's, Flatbush. The Archdeaconry's share in this work is an annual appropriation of $300 towards the support of the Minister-in-Charge. The mission has continued to flourish during the year, and looks forward to an independent parish life before very long; a full statement of its activities, numbers and income appears among the parochial reports.

V. ST. MARGARET'S MISSION.—The Sunday-school has been carried on as heretofore, by the efforts, and largely at the expense of Mr. F. C. Moore of New York. The Rev. Paul Loya continues his work among the Italians with about the same success as last year. The Archdeaconry appropriates $150 towards this work.

VI. THE CHURCH OF THE ADVENT, BENSONHURST, Rev. H. H. Bogert, Rector.—Services have been continued here throughout the year. The Rev. H. M. Kirkby resigned September 1st; on Advent Sunday, the Rev. H. H. Bogert took charge, and on the first of May he was elected rector, with the cordial approval of the Bishop. The mission is about to be incorporated as a parish. It is entirely self-supporting. The services have been well attended, and there is a marked growth in the Sunday-school. Four lots, worth $2400, have been secured and paid for, on which a parish house is to be erected at once. Since Advent Sunday the weekly offerings have aggregated $354.68.

VII. ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, PARKVILLE.—During the early part of this year the Rev. T. G. Losee was in charge of this work, his support being practically pledged by gifts from individual members of the Archdeaconry. He left for another field on the 1st of April; since then, the services have been carried on by a lay reader. This parish receives no direct support from the Archdeaconry treasury.

There are three or four points where good opportunities for establishing Church Services seem to open, but our limited income prevents us from seizing them at once. It is hoped that the larger offerings of the coming year may warrant efforts to lay new foundations in this rapidly-growing portion of the Diocese. The whole of this Archdeaconry is destined to become the seat of an immense population, much of which will be lost to the Church unless we begin to make provision for them now.

Respectfully submitted,

REESE F. ALSOP,
Archdeacon of Southern Brooklyn,

III.—The Archdeaconry of Queens.

It will be observed that this Archdeaconry is assessed $1460.00, and is allowed $750.00, Queens County thus being given the privilege and the responsibility of sharing with her sister of Suffolk, the burden of her missionary work.

As previously reported, the missionary work of Queens County is very largely carried on by some of the individual parishes and the Cathedral, the Cathedral Chapter making an annual appropriation for Missions. This method is not the best in theory, although it is less objectional in the rural parts of the Diocese than in the city; but it is doubtless found to work better in practice, than to have the work generalized. Most persons will give more readily and more liberally to some specific work in a locality with which they are acquainted, and to which they may sometimes give their personal services as well as their offerings, than to the general work which may not fall under their own observation. An anticipated advantage of the distribution of the Diocese into the several Archdeaconries, was to meet this very feeling; and the end is, in a measure, served by the Archdeaconry meetings, which are held at certain specified times, and at which the clergy and lay delegates from all the parishes can learn the details of the missionary work as it is carried on in the Archdeaconry, and can propose and discuss special measures for its advancement. And it is greatly to be wished that these Archdeaconry meetings might command a much fuller attendance.

It will give a fuller knowledge of missionary work in Queens to present it in both its aspects, parochial and archidiaconal;

The venerable and honored parish of St. George's, Flushing, has long led in the work, having for many years sustained the Mission of St. Paul's Church, College Point, and maintained an aggressive work in that large and important community. Every year a number of children are Baptised, and some years there have been very large Confirmations. The population, however, is more or less fluctuating, and as it is chiefly composed of Germans, few substantial and permanent accessions to the Church are gained. A large Sunday-school is faithfully carried on, but the work is peculiarly one of faith—a sowing of seed, and casting the bread upon the waters; the returns not to come for many days. Sometimes an almost hand-to-hand fight has to be waged against the Sunday excursionists, who habitually desecrate the Lord's Day, and create confusion and disorder.

Willett's Point is another Mission of St. George's, and it is also aided from the Archdeaonry funds. The work is chiefly among the officers and men of the regiment which is stationed at the fort, the services being held in a chapel which is used in common with the Romanists.

A very promising Mission has been carried on during the past year by the Rev. Mr. Wiley, Rector of Grace Church, South Oyster Bay. Sunday Services have been regularly held at Central Park, about three miles from the parish Church, in a rural neighborhood, and have gathered congregations of fifty or more persons; a Sunday-school is carried on, and now, on ground given by a resident, a Chapel has been built and is already occupied.

The Rev. Mr. Newbold, Rector of Christ Church, Manhasset, holds a regular Sunday service at Port Washington, three miles away, an important and growing community, consisting largely of bay-men and their families, where he ought to be enabled to have a Chapel and a Lay reader.

The seven Missions of the Cathedral are doing good work. The Church of the Ascension, Rockville Centre, has built a commodious rectory adjacent to the Church. St. Joseph's, Queens, has erected a very attractive Church, with a convenient basement for Sunday-school, in a suitable and prominent location. Freeport has completed a parish building, with basement for Sunday-school, and the floor above fitted and occupied as a Chapel. Ozone Park and Hollis are doing good work in their respective communities. At Amityville, the patient and self-denying Priest-in-Charge has persevered in the face of great obstacles, and has brought nineteen children and two adults to Holy Baptism. At Farmingdale, with some fresh growth in the community, the small band of Church members have taken heart of grace, and have re-organized the Mission, with good prospects.

The last, but by no means the least important, of the Parish Missions in Queens is the one inaugurated at Glendale by the Rector of the Church of the Resurrection, Richmond Hill. Here Mr. Meyer, a wealthy resident, as a memorial to a beloved daughter lately departed this life, has set apart her intended portion, $50,000, for the erection of a stone Church and parochial establishment; and has in the meantime, at his own expense, rented and fitted up a hall for public worship, paying the stipend of a lay reader; and at the Sunday evening service a congregation attends of from fifty to eighty persons.

We come now to the special work of the Archdeaconry. Its pecuniary aid has been given to four points: St. Thomas', Ravenswood; Willett's Point; St. Thomas', Farmingdale; and the Mission at Steinway.

At St. Thomas', Ravenswood, the Rector, the Rev. W. H. Weeks, perseveres in his work in a hard field. He reports for the year: Infant Baptisms, 21; Marriages, 4; Funerals, 7; Communicants, 24; Sunday-school: teachers, 9; scholars, 85. Public Services, twice on Sundays, and one week-day service; average attendance about 50. Contributions: Jewish Mission, $4; Diocesan Missions, $18; Foreign Missions, $14; Mexican Missions, $4.35.

St. Thomas' Mission, Farmingdale, has been given Sunday services the past winter by the Rev. C. W. Ivie, who reports a good attendance on Sunday evenings. A lay reader will be engaged, who will reside there during the summer, and will, it is hoped, renew the work of the Mission.

Mission at Willett's Point. The Rev. Mr. Schuyler reports: Infant Baptisms, 5; Confirmed, 3; Burials, 7; Communicants, 15; Sunday-school: teachers, 4; scholars, 18. Public services, 129; average attendance, about 50. Monthly contribution for the support of the Mission. The choir is composed of soldiers. There is no offertory, "it would frighten away the soldiers."

The Mission at Steinway, Long Island City, was inaugurated and is entirely sustained by the Archdeaconry. The faithful Missionary, the Rev. Mr. Kuehn, reports; Baptisms: Infant, 48; Adult, 1. Marriages, 3; Funerals, 18; a class preparing for Confirmation. 562 families visited. Sunday-school: teachers, 9; scholars, 162 on the roll, average attendance, about 125. Public Services, every Sunday evening, Wednesdays and Holy Days, 22 Sunday mornings; average attendance, about 40. Services are held in a hall temporarily fitted up. Last summer, the Rev. Mr. Kuehn supplemented his labors, and added something to his slender stipend, by taking a Sunday morning service at the Church of the Redeemer, Astoria, during the absence of the Rector. The work at Steinway is among a German population, composed chiefly of working people who, during these hard times, have been pressed to support their families, and are not generally inclined to Church attendance. The Missionary however, has by patient perseverance in well-doing, gained their respect and confidence; they call him in to them in sickness, and bring their children to Holy Baptism and to Sunday-school; and although they do not make a congregation for worship, they are sensible of the helpful and elevating influence of the Church's ministrations. But every Sunday through the summer, the great city pours out its inhabitants by tens of thousands to the near-by cheap and popular resort on Bowery Bay, and there is a strong tide against any sacred observance of the Lord's Day.

It will be seen from this Report that the Church is aggressive in the Archdeaconry of Queens, and is making tangible progress. The County is fast filling up with the overflow from Brooklyn, and foundations well laid, and work wisely done now, should ensure large results in the near future. The Archdeacon would record his grateful acknowledgments to the Clergy of Queens for their kind and indulgent fellowship, and to the parishes for their general responses. When we look back over these two years of financial stringency, we find in the progress that has been made, great cause for thankfulness and encouragement.

THOMAS W. MARTIN,

AUGUSTUS RAPELYE,

May 9, 1895.

Auditors.

IV.—The Archdeaconry of Suffolk.

The Suffolk County Associate Mission ceased to exist November 1st, 1895. Grace Church, Riverhead, having received by legacy a rectory for the residence of a clergyman and a substantial sum as endowment for the payment of a portion of his salary, was resigned by the Archdeacon at that time and this Church, together with that of the Redeemer, Mattituck, was placed under the charge of the Rev. R. M. Edwards ; the Church of the Holy Trinity, Greenport, remaining under the care of the Archdeacon.

The Rev. R. M. Edwards for Grace Church, Riverhead, reports : Families, 67 ; Individuals, 178 ; Baptisms, 9 ; Communicants, 77 ; Marriages, 2 ; Burials, 9 ; Sunday-school, teachers, 13 ; Pupils, male 49 ; female, 45 ; Total, 94. The Holy Communion is celebrated once each Sunday and Holy Day, with a second celebration on Easter and Christmas. Matins every Sunday except the fourth, when there is a late celebration. Evensong every Sunday and Friday and daily during Lent. In the Sunday-school all the scholars under twelve years of age have been organized into a Guild of the Holy Child, which meets monthly and receives personal instruction from the Rector. The girls between twelve and sixteen have been organized into the Guild of St. Agnes. There is also a flourishing Chapter (St. Margaret's) of the Daughters of the King, with eighteen charter members. The total receipts from all sources have been $420.46, out of which have been given to Diocesan Missions, $20.40 ; to Domestic Missions, $15.40 ; Bishop's Salary and Diocesan Fund, $6.75 ; Aged and Infirm clergy, $2.11 ; Church Charity Foundation, $3.88 ; Clerical support and other expenses, $336.31. Grace Church, in consequence of its recent legacy, is now a self-supporting parish and requires no more aid from the missionary treasury.

The Church of the Redeemer, Mattituck, remains stationary, from year to year, and there is no charge of conditions to report. The offerings at services have been $68.82, out of which have been paid the Diocesan assessment for two years, $10.00 ; the sexton's services and the traveling expenses of the Missionary-in-Charge. The church building has been freshly painted, the money being contributed by the few and faithful members. Baptisms, 3.

The Church of the Holy Trinity, Greenport, the Archdeacon, rector in charge, reports : Families, 25 ; Individuals, 70 ; Baptisms, (2 adults), 5 ; Confirmed, 2 ; Communicants, died, 1 ; present number, 32. Sunday-school, teachers, 5 ; Pupils : male, 12 ; female, 24 ; total 36. Holy Communion every Lord's Day ; Matins and Litany every Sunday except the fourth in the month ; Evensong every Sunday and Ash Wednesday ; and the Three Hours Service on Good Friday. The receipts from all sources have been $412.43, out of which have been paid, interest on rectory mortgage, $45.00 ; repairs on rectory, $86.14 ; all salaries and expenses, $215.18 ; Total for parochial objects, $446.32. Assessment of 1894 and 1895 for Bishop's salary, $12.00 ; Diocesan Missions, $40.57 ; Total for Diocesan Objects, $52.57. Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, $9.00. Total for all objects, $407.89. The Sunday-school offerings, used for its own needs, have been $15.08. The Guild of the Holy Trinity, by the proceeds of their labors, realized $121.00, with which very much needed repairs on the church were accomplished, at a cost of $102.00. The church was consecrated July 17th, 1894, and it seems to have proved an added obligation to the congregation to maintain their services and to make for the Parish of Holy Trinity a place of honor and usefulness in the Archdeaconry and the Diocese.

Christ Church, Port Jefferson, was under the charge of the Rev. Wm. G. Webb, until some time in the spring, when ill-health obliged him to give up. Mr. A. W. Wilde, a student in the General Theological Seminary, has been officiating as lay reader since then. Owing to his illness at the time, no other statistics were presented than the financial statement, a summary of which is here subjoined. Receipts from offerings at Sunday services, $207.05 ; Subscriptions, $149.00 ; Sale of organ, $100.00 ; Sale of photos, $1.00 ; Fair given by the Ladies' Aid Society, $165.29 ; Total from all sources, $622.34. Expenditures for parish purposes : all salaries and expenses, $530.73 ; Insurance, $30.00 ; Total for Parochial Objects, $560.73. Archdeaconry Missions, $7.26 ; Total, $567.99.

Caroline Church, Setauket, through the Rector, Rev. D. Marvin, reports : Baptisms, Adults 4, Children 6, total, 10 ; Confirmed, 16, the largest class ever presented to the Bishop from this church alone.

The number of communicants is 80, and a class is now preparing for Confirmation. There have been two marriages and ten burials. The services, held twice every Lord's Day, have been remarkably well attended, especially those of the morning. Holy Communion, bi-monthly ; services on all days for which a Collect, Epistle, and Gospel are provided ; two weekly in Lent ; and every day in Holy Week. Sunday-school, officers and teachers, 9 ; Scholars 63.

The three societies for church and missionary work have labored faithfully and well, as shown by the results contained in the financial statement, from which extracts are made to show what this venerable parish is doing and can do, not only for the support of its own services, but for the Church beyond its own borders. The receipts have been : from church collections, $262.80 ; Communion alms, $58.74 ; Subscriptions and donations, $456.57 ; Burial fees, $10.00 ; Sunday-school offerings, $69.02 ; Fairs and entertainments, $211.30 ; Children's societies, $8.05 ; Interest on endowment, $168.00 ; Graveyard fund, $36.83 ; Total from all sources, $1280.31. Disbursements : For Parochial objects : Charitable purposes, $8.23 ; Sunday-school, $73.89 ; Repairs and improvements, $63.69 ; Other expenses and all salaries, $936.98 ; Total for Parochial Objects, $1082.79. Diocesan : Bishop's Salary and Diocesan Fund, $18.00 ; Diocesan Missions, $30.37 ; Aged and Infirm Clergy, $4.37 ; Church Charity Foundation, $7.53 ; Total for Diocesan Objects, $60.27. General : Domestic Missions, $5.57 ; Junior Auxiliary, $8.05 ; Woman's Auxiliary, $5.00 ; Nebraska sufferers, $7.21 ; Total for General Objects, $25.83 ; Total disbursements for all objects, $1168.89. Besides this, St. Agnes' Guild sent a barrel of clothing and gifts to St. Cyprian's Mission, at Darien, Ga., estimated value being $18.00. Also a substantial nucleus has been gathered of a fund for the erection of a parish building.

Christ Church Mission, Bellport, and St. Andrew's, Yaphank, have been under the charge of the Rev. Joseph R. Norwood, and he reports : Baptisms, Bellport, 7 ; Yaphank, 3 ; Total, 10. Marriages, Bellport, 2 ; Brookhaven, 1 ; Total, 3. Funerals, 1. Confirmed, 3. Sunday services are held morning and evening in Bellport, and in Yaphank in the afternoon ; and weekly in Bellport ; also 48 services were held in North Bellport. Total number of services held between these three places, 107. Holy Communion, once a month in both Bellport and Yaphank. Private administrations, 2. The average attendance has been, in Bellport, 25 ; Yaphank, 40 ; North Bellport, 45. The financial statement concerns only "A Christmas Tree and Benevolent Fund," which is contributed from friends of the rector in Bellport and therefore gives no idea of the ability of these places. Amount contributed in cash to this fund, $170.50, and three boxes of clothing, toys, etc., valued at $51.10 ; Total, $221.60. Distributed to Children's Home, Yaphank; Sunday-schools; St. Andrew's, Yaphank; and Christ, Bellport; and Mission at North Bellport, where a faithful and self-denying work is done by the energetic rector.

The Rev. Fred. A. MacMillen, having in charge Christ, Brentwood; Messiah, Central Islip; and St. Mary's, Ronkonkoma, resigned February 1st, and these missions were placed under the charge of Mr. Wm. E. Ringwalt, a lay reader. It is with great regret that the admirable and complete report of Mr. Ringwalt has to be abbreviated.

These figures give the operations of the year, so far as fully shown by the records; a principal event being the large confirmation at St. Mary's, Ronkonkoma, on June 16th, 1894, greatly strengthening and giving new life to that Church. Services have been held all through the winter on Sundays in each of these places. The Holy Communion has been administered in each church once during March and April. Week day Lenten Services have also been held. At Ronkonkoma the week day evening services in Lent, held for the first time in many years, have been remarkably well attended.

The insurance on the Central Islip church, which had been allowed to lapse, has been renewed; and a tenant has rented the rectory at Ronkonkoma.

St. James' Church, Brookhaven, at the recent meeting of the Archdeaconry, has applied for aid and placed itself under its charge, and was voted an appropriation of $200.00. The lay reader, L. G. Witherspoon Morony, reported: 26 communicants; Services held twice every Sunday; and a Sunday-school organized of 11 scholars. The congregation average 25 persons, and a Confirmation class is under instruction.

A summary of the treasurer's report gives, as the amount of the offerings of the Archdeaconry of Suffolk during its fiscal year, $708.59; received from the Missionary Committee, $1,700.00, total $2,408.59, leaving a balance still due the treasurer from the Missionary Committee of $200.00. The treasurer's report is herewith enclosed.

At its annual meeting, held May, 1, 1895, the Archdeaconry made the following appropriations for the ensuing year:

To the Archdeacon.....	$300 00
Caroline Church, Setauket.....	200 00
Holy Trinity, Greenport.....	400 00

JAMES W. DIGGLES, Committee.

On motion of Archdeacon DARLINGTON, it was

Resolved, That this Convention recommend to each and all the parishes of this Diocese (who have not taken the two assigned offerings for Diocesan Missions), that on the third Sunday in June (First after Trinity, 16th inst.), such an offering be made and forwarded to the Treasurer of the Missionary Committee.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. NEWBOLD, it was Resolved, That, in the judgment of this Convention, the Secretary of each of the four Archdeaconries of the Diocese should regularly send out notice to the Rectors of parishes, and the Ministers-in-Charge of Mission Churches, within their several bounds, of the date, in the spring and autumn, appointed by resolution of this Convention for taking up offerings for Diocesan Missions.

Rev. Mr. MARVIN proposed the following amendment to the Missionary Canon: That Article I. Canon 9, Section II, be amended by the insertion of the words "In the same way as the delegate to the Diocesan Convention," after the words, "Chosen for the purpose," which, on his motion, was referred to the Committee on Canons.

Of the amounts pledged to be paid by the churches there is $5730.04 remaining unpaid.

The Convention has received the amount of the pledge of $500.00 of St. Mark's Church, Brooklyn (Rev. S. S. Roche, Rector), toward the fund promised to be paid before the meeting of this Convention.

According to the last Journal, in Suffolk County there are twenty-one parishes and missions, with 1695 communicants ; the average of the pledges has been $1.17 per communicant, and there is still unpaid $50.00 of the pledges.

In Queens County there are thirty-five parishes and missions with 4020 communicants ; the average of the pledges to the fund has been $1.25 per communicant, and there is still unpaid the sum of $399.00 on the pledges.

In Kings County there are fifty parishes and missions with 20,536 communicants ; the average of the pledges has been seventy-one cents per communicant, and there is still unpaid on the pledges the sum of $4781.04.

On behalf of the Committee,

CHAUNCEY B. BREWSTER,

GARDEN CITY, May 28th, 1895.

Chairman.

Mr. ORR presented and read the

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE OF THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.

Since their last report (see page 45 of the Journal of 1894) the Trustees have received the following :

No. 55. Deed of a plot of land 150 feet by 100 feet located on Village Avenue (immediately adjoining the church edifice), Rockville Centre, County of Queens. This property was purchased with money collected by the Very Reverend Samuel Cox, D.D., and the members of the Church at Rockville Centre, the intention being to build a rectory thereon at an early date. There are no restrictions whatever on this land.

No. 56. Deed from Maria L. Wood and M. Evelina Wood conveys to the Trustees a plot of land in Ozone Park, County of Queens, measuring 75 by 100 feet, upon the following conditions "In trust for the uses and purposes of the religious society or congregation of said Ozone Park, worshipping in conformity with the canons, rules and usages of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island, and on condition that should hereby granted premises cease to be used for the uses and purposes aforesaid, then and thereupon these presents to be void and of no effect."

No. 57. Deed from Abram N. Littlejohn, Bishop of Long Island, as trustee, conveys to the trustees, a plot of land in the Village of Queens, Town of Jamaica, bounded by Myrtle Street, Callister Place and Sumner Street and containing fourteen and one half city lots, the same having been purchased by the Congregation of the Cathedral Mission of St. Joseph, Queens, for the erection thereon of a new church edifice for the said Mission Congregation, subject to a right reserved by Thomas Callister to lay at the ends or sides of said plot gas, water and sewer pipes.

No. 58. Is a trust created under the will of the late Mrs. Louisa Howell of Riverhead, Long Island. Section four of the will gives to the trustees the plot of ground and house erected thereon (in which Mrs. Howell lived) "In trust for a rectory for the use of the Society or Congregation worshipping in Grace Church of said Riverhead."

Section six of the will gives to the trustees the residuary of the estate, "in trust, however, for the use of the said Society or Congregation of Grace Church." Under this section, the trustees have received from the Hon. John A. King, the executor of the estate, twenty shares of the capital stock of the Central Railroad Co. of New Jersey, par value $2,000; one Bond of Cairo, Arkansas and Texas Railroad Co., 7 per cent. bond, par value $1,000; four bonds of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad Co., 4 per cent. bonds of the par value of $4,000; cash amounting to $652.20; the market value of all being about $7,600.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. E. ORR,
Treasurer.

The Rev. Dr. HASKINS presented and read the

Report

ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Your Committee would respectfully report, that the Seminary, by much crowding, accommodated last winter one hundred and thirty-eight students. Thirteen others were turned away for want of room. During the past season the Seminary has received an endowment of about two hundred thousand dollars from the will of the Rev. Dr. Eigenbrodt, for many years a professor of the Seminary. Also from the same will ten thousand dollars to endow a fellowship.

Also five thousand dollars to endow a bed in St. Luke's Hospital for any sick student in the Seminary. This last gift has stimulated another friend of the Seminary to endow a second bed in St. Luke's Hospital, for the use of the Seminary.

Trinity Church, New York, has donated to the Seminary twenty-five thousand dollars for the erection of a house for the use of the Rev. Professor Seabury during his lifetime.

This gift has also moved another friend to give a like sum for the erection of a second house for the use of a professor.

There has also been received from the George A. Jarvis' estate of Brooklyn, forty thousand dollars. This makes a total of endowments during the past year of three hundred and ten thousand dollars.

There remains a great want of a refectory for the Seminary, which, when built will make room for, from sixteen to twenty more students in the old west building.

It is expected that next week a new professorship of Moral and Christian Philosophy will be established, and a professor elected.

The salaries of all the professors have recently been increased to an amount worthy of the work and the office. The Endowment Fund has now reached a million.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

S. M. HASKINS,
ROBERT WEEKS,
JOHN A. KING,
JOHN A. NICHOLS,
R. M. HARISON,

Committee.

The Rev. Dr. BACCHUS presented and read the

Report

ON THE CHURCH CHARITY FOUNDATION AND OTHER BENEVOLENT INSTITUTIONS.

In presenting its annual report, the Standing Committee on the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions of the Diocese, aims to give in briefest outline, some account of the work of our charitable institutions the past year. For full and accurate information of the condition and activities of our charities we would commend you to a perusal of the carefully prepared reports of the several departments of our charitable endeavor.

THE SHELTERING ARMS NURSERY,

151 Dean Street, celebrated during the year its silver anniversary, having rounded out the twenty-fifth year of its life of tender, tireless ministration to destitute children. The work goes on with unabated zeal. In this home 155 children have been sheltered for longer or shorter periods the past year, and twenty-four women, mothers of children, have found at various times, lodgement in it, making return for the hospitality bestowed upon their children, by taken oversight of their own, and other children, and by rendering service as domestics in the household. The income of the Nursery aggregates this year, if we include a cash balance from last year of $1520.95, $8057.48, and the outgo nets $6914.02, leaving a cash surplus of $2662.41. The work of this institution tends to outrun its accommodations and a plan is afoot to sell its present property and erect on another site a building which shall adequately house its enlarging activities.

ST. MARTHA'S SANITARIUM AND DISPENSARY,

For chronic and incurable cases, corner of Dean Street, and Kingston Avenue, has at present nineteen patients, of whom six are men and thirteen are women. Its revenues for the year sum $8492.77 and its disbursements including a reduction of its mortgaged debt in the amount of $1500, have been $8457.51, leaving a surplus of $35.28. Its property is valued at $38,000 and its total debt amounts to $25,000. Improvement and increase of property have marked the year, the latter consisting of newly bought property adjoining the Sanitarium and to be used as an annex, to which semi-invalids and convalescents may avail themselves of medical treatment and enjoy the comforts of a home at a reasonable cost. The scope of St. Martha's work is widening and it will need in the near future other adjoining property to perfect its equipment.

THE HOUSE OF ST. GILES THE CRIPPLE.

A Home and Hospital for Destitute Crippled Children, No. 419 Clinton Street, has cared the past year, for fifty-six crippled children, nine of whom have regained the use of their limbs, and almost all of whom have been greatly benefited in body and mind. The children are instructed in elementary knowledge, the handicrafts, morals, and in the doctrines and usages of the Faith. The moneys received for the year, inclusive of balance from last year, amount to $6688.33 and the expenditure embracing reduction of debt in the amount of $2000, and an outlay of $750 for improvements in the house, reach a total of $6682.82 leaving a remainder of $5.51.

THE CHURCH CHARITY FOUNDATION,

The departments of which are the Home for the Aged, the Orphan House, St. John's Hospital, the Orphans' Press and the Atlantic Avenue Dispensary, can receive but the briefest mention in this report. It would be quite impossible to treat fitly and fully of the quantity and quality of the work wrought on the Foundation the past year without invading at least one-third of the space of the Diocesan Journal.

The Home for the Aged, under the supervision of Sister Emma, has freely and graciously dispensed its benefactions to an average of fifty-seven beneficiaries.

The Orphan House, presided over by Sister Elizabeth, has ministered without stint to the physical, mental, and moral health of its one hundred foster-children, equipping them for self-support and the duties of approaching maturity.

The Orphans' Press, 1555 Atlantic Avenue, in respect of the neatness, tastefulness, technique and dispatch of its output has maintained its already high reputation, besides teaching a useful art to the youths apprenticed therein.

The Atlantic Avenue Dispensary shows an increase of some twenty per cent. in the number of its prescriptions and a total of 10,964 free treatments of impecunious patients. Its staff of physicians is more efficient and active than ever before.

The year's career of St. John's Hospital, equipped as it now is with medical and surgical staffs of the first skill and with all the appliances of a hospital of the foremost order, has been not only solidly successful but even brilliant; 502 patients have received treatment within its cheery wards, and on Ascension Day, its ambulance, introduced only some eighteen months ago, made its one thousandth trip. The number of the hospital's patients is two and a half times as great as four years ago, and fifty per cent. more than it was in 1893. The total number of days of care given by the hospital, during the first four months of 1895, was 6388, of these, so true is its charity, 4853 were free days. Notwithstanding the enlargement of its ministrations the proportion of Church patients is under the present system, probably larger than formerly and the number of pay-patients much larger. In keeping with this spirit of widening ministration, plans are being formed for the establishing of a training school for Nurses to be called the St. Elizabeth School of St. John's Hospital, and it is with pleasure we add that a member of the Hospital Committee, who has a just forecast of the future of the Hospital's work, has purchased the house and lot on Atlantic Avenue and jutting into the property of the Foundation, and declares his intention to present it to the Foundation whenever it shall be needed for Hospital use. The receipts of the Hospital for the year are $10,630.90, its expenditures $14,932.05, showing a deficit of $4291.54.

In passing your Committee are thankful to be able to announce a growing interest in the support of the Church Charity Foundation among the parishes and missions of the Diocese. "Among the current receipts," so writes the rector, "one of the most interesting items is the amount received directly from Churches. This in 1889, 1890 and 1891 aggregated, $14,827.01, or an average of $4942.34 a year. In the years 1892, 1893 and 1894, it aggregated $18,564.98, or an average of $6188.33 a year, and an increase of twenty-four per cent. This, though not satisfactorily large, is still a hopeful increase, especially as it represents the first offerings of many parishes that used to give nothing. The contributing parishes and missions were in 1891, forty-two, in 1894, sixty-seven, an increase of fifty per cent. It seems certain that these new contributors will turn in constantly increasing amounts in the future ?

Your Committee is of the opinion that the happy increase of parochial contributions and contributors is owing in no small degree to the able and felicitous manner in which the rector has presented the claims of our Great Central Charity upon parishes of Long Island. Your Committee deems it not amiss to say a word about the financial condition of the Church Charity Foundation.

The total of its endowment funds is $201,461.70, earning a net income of $7,217.48. The increase of the endowment funds, for the year has been $15,000, of which sum $5,000 comes from the estate of Mrs. Maria Hines, and the remaining $10,000 is a gift of Mrs. Anna Halliday Maxwell of St. Luke's Church.

The General Fund, by which is meant the yearly income from various sources, including contributions from individuals and parishes, for the maintenance of Homes for the Aged and the Orphan—has received $25,525.14, and disbursed $25,492.39, showing for the first time in many years no increase of deficit. It is true that there is a deficit in the General Fund of $5,035.50, but it is the unwelcome bequest of former years, and there is a movement in progress to wipe it out by individual subscription. Brethren, make the subscriptions at once "Bis dat, Cito dat." What we need and ought to have in order to keep the General Fund in a condition to pay the expenses of our increasing benefactions is a steady and growing income from the parishes. Whilst we gather from all this a hopeful financial outlook, it ought to be remembered that there is a heavy debt resting on the Church Charity Foundation, a debt anchored and floating of $59,679.64.

In closing its all too scant account of the imposing and noble activities of our Diocesan Charities, your Committee would deprecate the fact that there is a notion abroad that the administration of the Church Charity Foundation has been lacking in the observance of a prudent and wholesome economy. It is certainly a very grave charge for any one to make and ought to rest on indisputable data if made. Your committee would say in reply that the average cost, including wages, food, gas, repairs and supplies, everything except fuel, of maintaining per diem a beneficiary in the Home for the Aged is just thirty-one and one-third cents, in the Orphan House twenty-two cents, and in the Hospital eighty-eight cents. We do not see how the daily cost of sustentation of our inmates and patients could well be less, at any rate, it is safe to say that in the Hospital where the cost is greatest, that it is the cheapest rate that obtains in any Hospital of like excellence in the two great cities of New York and Brooklyn. And Whilst bespeaking your continued confidence in the management of the Church Charity Foundation, your committee would felicitate the parishes upon the promptitude and courtesy which have ever characterized the Rector and the several Committees on our Homes and Hospital in admitting at the earliest possible moment such persons as are by the rules and regulations, eligible as either patients or beneficiaries, and we would also congratulate the whole Diocese in regard to the ability of the present management, in administering conscientiously, lovingly, and effectively to the bodies and souls of those whom it has committed to the care and cure of our thrice blessed and glorious old Church Charity Foundation. Invoking the blessing of Almighty God upon the Founders, the furtherers, and in the time to come, the finishers of our noble work, we respectfully submit this report.

Report

OF THE 'AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND.

The Diocesan Commissioners of the American Church Building Fund and the Diocesan Committee appointed by the Bishop beg to offer the following report :

General Survey.—The aim of this Commission is to enable, by loans and gifts, small congregations of Church people to erect their Church building at the opportune time, instead of waiting until that time has passed and the field is occupied. There are now thirteen years of active operations behind us. More than three hundred loans have been made. Church buildings stand in some two hundred places where there would to-day be no Church but for the existence of this Fund.

The Fund has grown from $247,326.00 in 1894 to $268,678.60 in May, 1895, a gain for the year of $19,352.60. The total amount of loans made to date is $317,002.33. The amount repaid on loans into the treasury is $148,589.00. These returned sums have in all cases been sent at once on other errands of usefulness. The total of gifts made from interest moneys to feeble Missions during the last two years is $9,350.00, so that at length the movement is fairly fulfilling its double Mission in loans and gifts.

Among dioceses, Long Island holds the fourth rank in the generosity of her contributions, and Grace and St. Luke's, Brooklyn, are star parishes as having made liberal gifts to the fund every year for fourteen years.

The diocesan reports for 1894-1895 hereto appended, shows a gain over last year of more than two hundred dollars. Thirty-eight parishes have contributed $863.75 against a last years total of $651.61. Thirty-nine of the one hundred and seventeen parishes in the diocese have now paid in their full quota.

This fund, as an essential part of the Church's Domestic Missionary work has, it seems to your commissioners, the most sacred claim upon us. The goal of diocesan duty is plainly an offering, great or small, at a morning or an evening service from each parish. Long Island has given more than we report to-day. As many as sixty-five parishes have of recent years been contributors to this noble work, and the yearly aggregate has reached the sum of $1800. It depends solely upon the personal fidelity of individual rectors whether we shall once more approximate that sum during the coming year.

A detailed list of parishes and their contributions is herewith submitted.

In behalf of the Committee,

ARTHUR B. KINSOLVING,
HENRY E. PIERREPOINT,

GARDEN CITY, May 28th, 1895.

Commissioners for Long Island.

On motion, the Convention then adjourned until to-morrow morning.

The Second Day.

WEDNESDAY, May 29, 9:30 o'clock, A. M.

Prayers were said at 9:30 o'clock, and the Convention met pursuant to adjournment, the Bishop in the Chair.

The minutes of the proceedings of yesterday were read and approved.

The Clerical and Lay Delegates not present yesterday were requested to send their names to the Secretary's desk.

The Rev. Mr. Bellinger asked permission to withdraw a resolution offered by him last year and referred to the Committee on Rules of Order. On motion, his request was granted.

Mr. Roche presented and read the

Report

ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Long Island:

The Committee on Christian Education would respectfully report:

The Schools of the Diocese have passed, on the whole, a year of solid usefulness at a period when extraordinary interest has been shown in the cause of learning. Never before, to judge from the number of students in our higher institutions, and from the enormous gifts made to the building funds and endowments of our leading colleges and special schools, was education so highly valued in America. We witness, in a day, larger donations by a private citizen than the entire amount devoted by whole dynasties to the creation of some of the first universities of Europe. The vast increase in wealth of the older seats of learning in the last quarter century, and the birth and vigorous growth of scores of foundations for the study of divinity, medicine, the physical sciences, philosophy, political economy, art, may safely be accepted as evidence of the truth that republican institutions foster among the people enthusiastic love of learning.

That which fixes the value of the individual in society is his personality, the manner in which human existence has in him its limitations and relations. The finished result of personality is character, and the most powerful agent in the evolution of personality is education. On the method taken in the instruction of the child depend the amount of help he will contribute to the well being of others and the amount of happiness he will realize in himself. In all speculation regarding the progress of mankind a prominent place must ever be assigned to schemes of education. If the training be defective the resulting manhood must be stunted, the resulting womanhood inharmonious. That which stimulates some faculties abnormally and leaves others to waste is not instruction, just as memorizing is not learning, just as facts are not energies. We never teach a child aright till we accord their just importance to each element of his complex nature. If we neglect the body the temperament, the disposition, the social sense, the love of nature, the craving for art, the conscience, the belief in God, we are subtracting a definite quantity from the worth of that completed character and a commensurate benefit from the common prosperity. In the prevailing fondness for an exclusively intellectual drill to the ignoring of religious instruction and even of physical development we are to discover the source of some the most serious evils under which mankind are suffering. The very body must be cared for in a conscientious endeavor to create beauty and strength, in the cultivation of the sense powers, and in tireless efforts to elicit deftness from the very fingers tips. Infinitely more important there is the soul, sent from God, bearing his likeness, capable of inconceivable felicity in His presence. Dare to neglect these and what wonder that we have so much of disorder, of unrest, of despair in the world? At the feet of an unjust, remorseless system of education which meets the advancing race dreaming of betterment, with a cast steel measure of a mental training we lay the responsibility for much of the world's degrading poverty, the social jealousies, the slovenly habits of business, the dishonest workmanship, the perverted ideals, the riotous extravagance, the rampant materialism, the gross sensuality, the indifference to Church, the ignoring of God. In these schools we have endeavored to cultivate, body, and spirit, as well as mind.

St Paul's School, Garden City, sent up to college last year ten boys. At the close of the present term twelve will be examined for college. The graduating class numbers eleven, of whom two will return next year to take a post-graduate course. Early in May sixteen boys were confirmed at the Cathedral. During the year forty-nine new students have been enrolled, and the entire number in attendance has been ninety-five. The health of the school has been admirable, there having been no serious cases of illness throughout the year. The outlook is encouraging; some new boys having been enrolled already for the coming year, which it is confidently believed will show larger classes than any the present headmaster has seen. Mr Gammage's character and policy have been such that whether we observe their effect on the interior administration or outside reputation of the school that we feel justified in anticipating high success.

At St. Mary's, Garden City, about sixty girls have been under tuition, of whom fifteen are boarders. Some needed improvements have been made in the building and the school is now in possession, in a locality of unrivalled healthfulness, of one of the most modern and nobly equipped structures for the education of girls. After faithful service as Principal, during nine years, Miss Farwell presents her resignation, taking effect July 1st. The Chapter of the Cathedral has expressed to Miss Farwell the most cordial wishes for her future. §

Her unintermitting zeal, lofty devotion to the interests of the school, discriminating attention to the needs of individual pupils, and her unusual altitude as an educator and an academic administrator, will be remembered among the most gratifying traditions of St. Mary's.

St. Catharine's Hall, Washington Avenue, Brooklyn, while feeling the depressing effect of the times, has maintained its former high curriculum, and rejoices in the fact that its graduates have taken the very highest rank in scholarship at Wellesley, Smith and Barnard Colleges. At the request of the Bishop a Board of Trustees, twenty-one in number has been formed with the double object of affording relief to the Bishop and of bringing the schools into the living sympathy of the parishes. The board is organized with committees on finance, patronage and course of study. The Bishop remains as Patron. The trustees would welcome suggestions or criticism as to teaching or management of the school, and desire to enlist the active interest of the clergy, on whom should rest the responsibility of helping the institution to attain its proper character as a Diocesan school.

St. Catharine's in the Mountains, is a Christian Summer Home, located at Holderness, N. H., in the neighborhood of the White Mountains. Here two hours daily are given to literary work and to womanly pursuits—embroidery and cooking. The pupils are taught to drive and harness a horse, to row and to fish on the lake. Regular practice hours are provided for music pupils, and French conversation receives special attention. Parents or guardians wishing to go abroad will find it a desirable place to leave their daughters. The trustees wish it clearly understood that the advantages of Holderness are not confined to members of St. Catharine's. They believe that the summer school would be helpful to many others. Any young lady attending school or not; any young girl whose parents wish to have her combine an outing in the White Mountains with any branch of study, or the acquisition under the most careful guardianship of such accomplishments as riding, driving, swimming or boating; or any pupil in another school who may wish to give more attention to a study in which she may be deficient or those who may be working for advanced standing in their classes, will find this a most suitable place for their purposes. The Chairman of the Committee having in charge the school at Holderness is the Rev. Townend G. Jackson of Flatbush.

SPENCER S. ROCHE,
W. W. BELLINGER,
WM. S. COGSWELL.

Rev. Mr. Roche, at the close of his report, suggested that some additional particulars would be presented, in regard to St. Catharine's Hall, whereupon Mr. N. Pendleton Schenck presented the following statement:

Notwithstanding the depression in business, and the consequent effect upon our Educational Institutions, the Trustees expect to close the school year without substantial deficit, which is largely owing to the economical management of the Sister-in-Charge. As the Trustees did not enter upon their duties till late in the school year, they are not able to report in detail, the receipts and expenditures, as they expect to do hereafter. The school has had about seventy-five scholars.

The Rev. Dr. HASKINS proposed to amend Sec. II of Art. I of the Constitution as follows: by striking out the words, "provided that when such day falls in Rogation Week, it shall be on the fourth Tuesday of May;" and on his notion, the amendment was referred to the Committee on Canons.

The Rev. Mr. JEFFERY proposed that Sec. II, Canon 1, of Art. III be amended by the addition of the words "and of confirmed persons" after the word "communicants"; which on his motion, was referred to the Committee on Canons.

The Rev. Dr. ALSOP, in behalf of the Special Committee, appointed in 1893 to consider the proposed amendment of the Constitution of the General Convention, presented and read the following Report.

The committee appointed to consider that portion of the Bishop's address of 1893 having reference to acts of the General Convention needing to be approved by the several Diocesan Conventions, respectfully reports as follows:—

The last General Convention adopted an amendment to the Constitution allowing a diocese to diminish its area and to cede an abandoned portion to the general Church, to be treated as a missionary district. Your committee would recommend this Diocesan Convention not to approve of such action, for several obvious reasons:

First: The Board of Missions has already more than it can well do in meeting the needs of the newer portions of our country so rapidly filling up with population. It is already hampered and crippled in its work because of the greatness of the work and the smallness of its resources. It seems hardly fair, therefore, to heap upon it new burdens which ought to be borne by others.

Secondly: The proposed amendment relieves a part of the Church of a duty which belongs especially to it, and transfers the burdens which it ought to carry to the Church at large. To make this plain, the committee would call attention to some of the very cases adduced. Take, for example, the northern peninsula of Michigan. This was a part of the Diocese of Michigan, in which diocese is situated the wealthy city of Detroit. The effect of the amendment is to relieve Detroit of all special responsibility for the northern part of the state and to throw that responsibility upon the Board of Missions. Take an illustration near at home; what would we think of a proposition for the Diocese of Long Island to diminish its area to Kings and Queens counties, and ask the General Board to assume the responsibility of carrying on the work in Suffolk? The committee think that where a sparsely settled and needy territory has diocesan connection with other territory in which are strong centres of population, it is a mistake to relieve the diocese, or the portion of the diocese near at hand, of its responsibility in order to throw responsibility and burden upon a Board which is already overloaded. They therefore trust that this Diocesan Convention will not approve the proposed amendment, but rather send up a protest against it.

(Signed) REESE F. ALSOP,
CHARLES H. HALL,
JOHN A. KING.

On motion it was

Resolved, That this Convention does not approve of such proposed action.

The Rev. Dr. MORRISON proposed the following amendment to the Missionary Canon :

Resolved, that Canon 9, Sec. I [1] be amended to read as follows :
“I. The Archdeaconry of Brooklyn.”

That Section II be amended as follows: “each archdeaconry shall be composed of the clergy canonically resident within its limits, together with a lay representation from each parish, of six persons, three men and three women; and two persons from each mission, one man and one woman. Each archdeaconry shall nominate to the Bishop for his approval or rejection a clergyman to fill the office of Archdeacon, whose term of office shall be for four years from the time of his appointment. In case the office should become vacant by death or resignation, a special meeting of the Archdeaconry shall be convened by the Bishop to fill the vacancy in the manner provided above.”

On his motion, the foregoing proposed amendment was referred to the Committee on Canons.

The Rev. Dr. ALSOP presented the following

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred a change in Art. I, Canon 9, Sec. II, proposed by Rev. Mr. Marvin, by the insertion of the words "in the same way as the delegates to the Diocesan Convention," report that in their judgment such change is not desirable ; but recommend the insertion of the words "appointed annually for the purpose to serve until the next meeting of the Convention." They therefore report the following resolution :

Resolved, That Art. I, Canon 9, Sec. II, be amended by the elision of the words "chosen for the purpose," and the substitution thereof of the words "appointed annually to serve until the sitting of the next Convention."

In behalf of the Committee,

R. F. ALSOP.

On motion, the resolution appended to the report was adopted.

The Very Rev. Dean COX presented and read a

Further Report

The Rev. Dr. MORRISON proposed the following amendment to the IXth Rule of Order, by inserting after the words "as follows":

The Secretary shall prepare printed blank ballots, designating what officers or committees are to be voted for; and shall post an alphabetical list of nominations at the commencement of the second day's session in the hall of the Convention; but this shall not preclude further nominations immediately before an election is had.

On motion this amendment was referred to the Committee on Canons.

On motion of the Hon. JOHN A. KING, it was

Resolved, That the Convention regret that our revered friend, the Rev. Charles H. Hall, D.D., D.C.L., LL.D., is unable to be with us to-day, but remembering his wise and valuable counsels, beg to send to him our sincere greetings and best wishes for renewing health.

Mr. FLEEMAN proposed the adoption of the following preamble and resolution:

Inasmuch, As this day is the eighty-second birthday of the Rev. Samuel M. Haskins, D.D.:

Resolved, That this Convention recognizes the long and faithful service of the venerable doctor both in his pastoral relations and as a member of this body, and desires to place on record its congratulations, that he has by God's mercy attained so great age, with its prayers that his life and present good health may yet long continue.

On motion, this resolution was adopted by a rising vote.

The Rev. Mr. BREED, presented and read the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, The Rev. Edmund Drury Cooper, D.D., has served this Convention as its Assistant Secretary for twenty-six successive years, or from the date of our Diocesan organization; and has done so with conspicuous faithfulness and unvarying courtesy to all: Therefore Resolved, That this Convention hereby gratefully recognizes Dr. Cooper's official and valuable services, and begs to assure him of its best wishes for his health and happiness during many years to come.

Resolved, That the unanimous expression of the gratitude and affection of the Convention towards Dr. Cooper, be suitably engrossed and presented to him, duly signed by our President and Secretary.

On motion these resolutions were unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

Mr. VAN BOKKELEN, presented and read the following preamble and resolution :

Whereas, The figures given in the report of the Committee on the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions of the Diocese ; as far as they relate to the financial condition of the Church Charity Foundation, are different from those given in the published annual report of that charity ; therefore

Resolved, That a committee of three (of which the Chairman of the Committee on the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions of the Diocese shall be one), be appointed to classify said figures so they will harmonize with the published report of said charity prior to their being printed in the Journal of the Convention.

The Chairman of the Committee on the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions, having stated that his report was for the Conventional year, and covered a later period than the "published annual report" alluded to, on motion, the resolution was laid on the table.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. WEEKS, it was Resolved, That 1000 copies of the Bishop's Address be printed separately from the Journal for the use of the members of this Convention.

On motion of Dr. GARDINER, it was Resolved, That fifteen hundred copies of the Journal of the Proceedings of the Convention be printed and distributed under the direction of the Secretary.

Resolved, That $50 be allowed to the organist of the Cathedral for the expense of the music at the opening services ; and $15 to the Verger for his services in attendance on this Convention.

Resolved, That $250 be allowed to the Secretary ; and $100 to the Treasurer, for clerical assistance.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be returned to the Secretary, the Assistant Secretary, and the Treasurer, for their faithful and acceptable services.

Resolved, That the Special Committee on the Transportation and Entertainment of Members of this Convention are entitled to our warmest appreciation and thanks for their services, and that they be cordially invited to serve another year.

On motion of the Hon. JOHN A. KING, it was

Resolved, That this Convention is happy to extend their greetings and congratulations to our revered Bishop, on his return to his Diocese, by a united and rising note.

Resolved, That after the reading and approval of the Minutes of this day's proceedings, and the closing devotions, the Convention adjourn sine die.

At the request of the President, the Rev. Dr. ALSOP took the chair.

The Minutes of this day's proceedings were read and approved.

The Rt. Rev. the Bishop said the concluding prayers and pronounced the Benediction.

And the Convention adjourned sine die.

ABRAM NEWKIRK LITTLEJOHN, D.D., LL.D.,

Bishop of Long Island,

And President of the Convention.

Attest :

T. STAFFORD DROWNE, D.D.,

Secretary.

EDMUND D. COOPER, D.D.,

Assistant Secretary.

The Bishop's Address, Visitations, and Acts.

In pursuance of the resolution of the last Convention assuring me of the desire of the clergy and laity of the Diocese that I should take a rest from official duty for one year, I left home August 15th, and returned April 30th, having been absent some eight and a half months. The unused remainder of the year will, by your kindness, be placed, no doubt, to my credit ; so that, possibly, during the coming year I may feel quite free to avail myself of another period of rest should it be needed ; I am happy to assure you that I have resumed my work with greatly improved health ; and yet I must ask you to remember in your requests for Episcopal service that I am not as young and strong as I was ten years ago, and that it will not be well to make any unnecessary demands upon me. In the matter of confirmations, I must beg the clergy to arrange for my visitations so that two or more parishes and missions can present their candidates in one place and at one service. This may not be convenient or practicable in some cases ; but in others it can be done without detriment to any interest concerned ; and in all these I shall expect it to be done. Such an arrangement, I need hardly say, would very much relieve the strain on my time and strength, and enable me to serve the Diocese all the more in other important branches of work. If the clergy will generally act upon this suggestion, the time may, by God's blessing, be postponed some years, when failing strength will oblige me, should my life be spared for such an emergency, to ask for permanent assistance. It is in your power to lessen the burden of care and labor, and I now affectionately urge upon you the expediency of considering how this power can be most wisely exercised.

I wish here to record my grateful acknowledgment of the very efficient and acceptable ministration of my dear brother the Bishop of East Carolina. He officiated in 23 separate services, and confirmed 831 persons from 40 parishes and missions, which, with 600 confirmed by myself, before my departure and after my return, in 30 parishes, make the number confirmed during the year. I would also, in this connection, express my sincere thanks to the Standing Committee for its careful and judicious administration of the authority canonically committed to it during my absence. Nor ought I to fail to assure the clergy and laity of the Diocese generally of my sense of obligation to them for their ardent desire to maintain peace and order.

During the year the Church has lost by death two of the most earnest and devoted bishops—Rt. Rev. D. B. Knickerbacker, D.D., Bishop of Indiana, and Rt. Rev. E. S. Thomas, D.D., Bishop of Kansas.

This Diocese and this Convention miss to-day two of their most prominent and useful laymen, taken from us in an advanced age, and with a noble record of lifelong service to the Church. I refer to Mr. Edwin Beers and Mr. Charles A. Townsend.

I have spoken so often and so fully, on previous occasions, of the Schools, the Charities and the Missions of the Diocese, that I may safely refer you for all needful information concerning them to the Reports of the several Standing Committees to whose special care these important interests have been committed. As to our Missions in the four Archdeaconries, in the majority of which creditable work has been done, I think it my duty to call your attention to the general disregard of a resolution of this body, unanimously adopted some four years ago. This resolution made it the duty of every parish in the Diocese to have at least two offerings annually in aid of Diocesan Missions. This wholesome and needed requirement seems to have been forgotten, except in a few instances. I would suggest that the resolution be executed or else rescinded. In my judgment it ought to be respected and obeyed, and I trust some suitable action will be taken with a view to a renewed consideration of its requirements.

The next General Convention, I need hardly remind you, will be one of unusual importance. Aside from other grave matters to come before it, there will be the Report of the Joint Committee on the revision of the Constitution; while many of the proposed changes will command general assent, there are some that will excite serious differences of opinion, and will be adopted or rejected only after prolonged discussion. Doubtless, this Diocese will be ably and faithfully represented, and yet it may not be amiss for this Body to express, after due deliberation, its mind upon some features of the scheme of revision set forth in the Report of the Joint Committee appointed by the last General Convention. If such an expression of opinion could be thoughtfully reached it would have a double value; first, as a help to your deputies, and next as an education for yourselves, that would prepare you for intelligent final action when the conclusions arrived at by the General Convention will come before you for approval or disapproval. It will be part of the business of the present session to act upon the alteration of the fifth article of the Constitution adopted by the General Convention in October, 1892, which was as follows: "That to the fifth article be added a clause in these words: The General Convention may accept a cession of part of the territorial jurisdiction of a Diocese, when the Bishop and Convention of such Diocese shall propose such cession, and three-fourths of the Parishes in the ceded territory and also the same proportion of the Parishes within the remaining territory, shall consent thereto." This alteration was referred a year ago to a Special Committee of this body. The Report of this Committee will, I am sure, be carefully drawn, and it ought to be quite as carefully considered by you. The Church has already had some instructive experience of the operation of this proposed alteration of the Constitution; whatever the benefits arising from it, the evils which it threatens are very serious. Your Committee will, no doubt, so present both a^s to enable you to determine without much hesitation wha^t your action ought to be.

To return to our own affairs, I am happy to say that from my point of view this Diocese is in most respects, healthy and prosperous. Its past history was so fully reviewed a year ago at this place that it need not be referred to now. It was then shown how much there is in it to inspire gratitude and hope, and, on the other hand, how far off we are from our own ideal of what a Diocese ought to be in this land and at the close of this century. I will only add that on at least three sides of our work there is now abundant room for improvement. It is admitted by all who know the facts that our Missions, our organized Charities, our Educational Institutions have not the sympathy and support of Churchmen in this Diocese which they must have, if they are to live and to accomplish their proper ends. They demand what they do not get, and, unless many of us mend our ways of dealing with them, the day will come when a carping world will, in terms of scorn, ask what is the Christianity worth that allows such neglect of noble foundations. God forbid that any failure of duty among us should ever make it possible to ask such a question.

ABRAM NEWKIRK LITTLEJOHN, D.D., LL.D.,

Bishop of Long Island.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS OF
THE BISHOP OF LONG ISLAND

Delivered May 28th, 1895.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and of the Laity :

In addressing you to-day in Convention assembled for mutual counsel as to the ways and means for advancing the Church's interests, there is one leading thought which I wish to press upon your attention. If we accept the teaching of history, we shall find that the Church has prevailed in the past and that it will prevail in the future ; not so much because of its exemption from defects of administration and corruptions of doctrine, as because of earnestness of conviction and work among its members, and especially among those who are set apart to plead its cause. The Church is perfect in itself, but, as voiced by us, very imperfect. Its power to grow is not conditioned by its perfection or imperfection, but rather by the aggressive force of conviction and work which it is able to develop and organize in the stewards, whether official or unofficial, of its transcendent gifts.

I shall not speak to you in a general way of fervor and energy in the cause of truth, but of these qualities as among the essentials of a conquering Church. Of their real or possible extravagances and abuses in the past or in the present I am not now concerned to speak.

It is a fact of history that next to the truth of Christ the main source of the Church's power in its conflicts with the world has been found not in orthodox thinking, or in deep and varied learning devoted to the study of the Sacred Records, or in efforts of the Christian intellect to adjust the rival claims of faith and reason—valuable as all these are to the life and health of the Church ; but in ardour of individual conviction and energy of individual action. When, in these qualities, it has outstripped all lower human interests, then it has done its best service, won its greatest victories, most profoundly swayed the hearts of men and with them the drift of the world's life. And this it has done more than once in spite of heresies that touched the core of its teaching, or of corruptions that cast a disastrous eclipse over its most cherished ideals.

In the times of the Apostles and those immediately after, the Church was cursed with errors and divisions and internal troubles of every name that threatened to end its career before it fairly began ; and yet such was the zeal of the faithful, who were often reduced to what seemed a hopeless minority—such their glow of conviction and burning force of will that the Gospel's sound went into all the earth and its words unto the ends of the world. Up to the beginning of the fifth century the Church did not overpass the limits reached within 150 years from the day of Pentecost, viz.: Britain, the Rhine, the Danube, the Caspian Sea, the Persian Gulf, and the bounds of Proconsular Africa. To many, indeed, its force then seemed to be spent and the wave of its power to be rolling back toward the point whence it started. Whatever vitality it had appeared to have been exhausted by its efforts, during the previous two hundred years, to drive out heresies and to formulate the truth. How groundless were the fears of its friends and the hopes of its enemies soon appeared under the light of subsequent events.

At the dawn of the fifth century the Church was confronted by a new enemy, scarcely less formidable than the old Greeco-Roman Paganism over which it had triumphed—even the rude, wild Paganism which, with a few coarse virtues and many untamed passions, spread over Europe in the wake of the Gothic and Slavonic hordes that gathered like birds of prey around the dying body of the Roman Empire. Civilized heathenism it had fought and conquered ; it was now to grapple with heathenism intrenched behind a lawless and unlettered barbarism. I need not go over the story of how it met and vanquished this gigantic foe. It is enough for my purpose that I emphasize one fact in it. The struggle with this power continued until the thirteenth century—a period of 800 years; and the point to be noticed is that, however dark the eclipse that fell during that period upon the intelligence of the Church, however great and manifold its doctrinal and practical errors, there was something that kept alive its power of conquest—something that brought order out of chaos; something that finally grouped around the cross the savage masses that overspread Europe and laid the foundation of our modern life. And what was that something? You may tell me of the learning stored in a thousand monasteries. You may tell me of the elements of social life and political organization rescued from the old Roman civilization, and of other things that aided in accomplishing the result. But the foremost thing was the unction, the fire, the energy, that throbbed in the souls of an Ulphila, of a Columban, of a Winifrid, and other fellow-laborers—those Apostles to the Gothic and German nations—who were aflame with the spirit of the Master's command, "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me."

The Church triumphed in those ages of darkness and trial, as it had done before, and as it always will do, not by being free from fault, but by being in earnest.

Now, without venturing to compare the Church of to-day in respect of this quality with the Church of any past age, I am persuaded that there are many influences at work tending to chill what religious fervor we have—be it greater or less than in some former periods. It is to these influences that I now wish to call attention. Wherever a soul really shares in the true Christian enthusiasm for humanity, it shows it by infallible signs. It comes out in its convictions of faith and duty; it glows and burns in outward character and conduct; it finds vent in deeds the source and aim of which no man can mistake. Certainly the Church in all her orders and ranks, in all her departments of work, in her pulpits and her pastorates, in her missions and charities, has now not a few such souls. If she had not, she would soon drift into shame and defeat and be despoiled of her treasures. But she has, alas ! too few. When we turn to the multitude within her borders we find but too often that they are ready to wear, but not to bear the cross, to admire ardour of feeling and action rather than to show it, to praise rather than become confessors and heroes, to explain away the need rather than enforce the practice of self-dénial.

Assuredly Christian men and women to-day are not earnest about their Christianity in the sense and to the degree that men and women in general are earnest about things that seriously affect their success and comfort in the ordinary relations of life. At a thousand centres of Christian influence in our midst the fire burns low ; the cinders and ashes are gaining upon it. Some will doubt this and will remind us of what Christianity is doing to fulfill its mission. But outward activity is not always a safe criterion of a deep and glowing inward life. As with the individual, so with the Church : it generally happens that the more the heart beats, the more noisy and demonstrative will be the movement of the hands and feet. The outward paroxysm tells how the life is dying out at its source. And so it may be (and there are some signs of its being so) that our restless, widely-diffused, bustling enterprise, our care for ecclesiastical machinery rather than the force that is to drive it, only hides, in a way flattering to our complacency, a certain coldness and shallowness of spiritual life in the inner soul of the Church. Whatever truth there is in this now, there are causes at work upon us, which, if they continue, will in the next generation make wholly true what may be only partially so now.

We have heard from one of the oracles of the advanced secular wisdom of the time how "a theological thaw" has set in, and from another how the old traditions of doctrine lie at the feet of modern science "like so many strangled reptiles around the cradle of the infant Hercules" ; and from another how a spirit of secret doubt, both mental and moral, is slowly eating out the vitals of Religion, considered as a system which is to lead and govern men in their beliefs and morals. These are, indeed, utterances of minds already adrift and deriving a certain satisfaction from seeing as many more as possible lapsing into their own faithless attitude. Still, they but too truly tell what is going on among us. It has grown quite common in certain so-called Christian circles to cultivate a kind of mental suspense as to some, if not all the essential tenets of the Gospel, to look out coolly on controversies involving the essential Divinity of our Lord, and so by necessary consequence the divine authority of what He taught and instituted—to speak as though really there may be two sides to the most fundamental truths ; and if two, then they tell us, perhaps, it were better to wait until the issue be decided. What else than the chill and torpor of spiritual death can spring from such a tone and attitude of mind ? Persons thus affected may continue to meet their neighbors for worship and all external Christian offices ; they may give their money to support them and discharge all the courtesies of church membership ; but earnest convictions have died out within them, and the very capacity—to say nothing of the desire—for earnest action is extinguished. God only knows, this hour, how many such must be counted out of the apparent bulk of the Church's strength.

But next falls upon us the heavy, sluggish mist of worldliness, sending a chill down into the very marrow of our average religion. When we think how general and often how supreme the devotion is, in these days, to what feeds and pleases the animal man—to diet, shelter, raiment, houses and lands, gold and silver, and stocks and securities, and all the fine, soft, showy things which they command—when the question “what is he worth ?” is asked a hundred times where the question “has he a pure life ?” is asked once—when people give more to build vaults for their bones than to build sanctuaries for God or asylums for His poor—when beer-shops and gin-mills take more from the pockets of the people than the Christian Religion gathers upon its altars—when houses by the thousand, the paths unto which lead down to hell, are winked at by the guardians of the law and Legislatures threaten to tax our houses of prayer ; when we think of these and scores of other things that they suggest and imply, what question can there be as to the chill that has crept over our Christ-given fervor of conviction and aspiration ? That Christian generation cannot be in earnest that allows itself to be so handicapped by a world which God has given it the power to subdue unto Himself.

Again, what earnestness we have or might hope to have suffers from the sect divisions domiciled within the camp of Christ itself. The Church can find room for schools of thought and parties representing opposing policies. She is the stronger and healthier for their existence, because they are expressions of a free and many-sided life. But she has no room, no sanction for them when they harden into sects and split up into isolated fragments her own organic life. Then they become so many cancers feeding on her nerve tissues and draining out the fountains of her power. The narrow zeal of a sect, however active and intense, is a lame substitute in any community for the steady, calm, wide-sweeping warmth radiating from the whole body—the one Catholic and Apostolic Church. And yet the heat born of sect zeal is, unfortunately, the only spiritual heat that very much of this land knows anything about. Such heat is only less to be dreaded than a positive chill.

Again, there are not a few sensitive, devout, highly-wrought characters in the Church who ought to set the Church aflame with the ardour of their faith and the energy of their action, and yet in fact are no better than so many dry bones or withered branches—and all because their ideals of Church life and work are not fulfilled. They will not be in earnest or allow the Church to profit by their earnestness unless they can work in their own way and have the Church purged and exalted according to their own ideal of teaching and worship.

Again, we are often told that our time deserves much credit for its advance in what is called “applied Christianity.” We are reminded of the Church’s duty to bring itself into touch with all human interests, and that there is no conception of the kingdom of Christ so grand and fruitful as that which would regard it as simply a higher phase of the social organism. We are asked to believe that our hope of the life to come can amount to little except as we succeed in making the life of mankind, as it now is, what it ought to be, and that the true centre of gravity in all the Church's work is the present, not the future and unseen world. If this be true, it follows that the main stress of Christian effort should be put, not upon issues directly affecting the spiritual condition of the individual soul and assuming as the chief interest to be cared for the soul's discipline for the eternal life which is the gift of God through Jesus Christ; but rather upon social, political, industrial, literary, scientific and æsthetic questions which have to do with the knowledge and happiness of mankind in the life that now is. This view of the Gospel's foremost aim has been largely accepted in our day. It has in it the vice and the peril which infest all half truths, or whole truths partially stated, and it is of the last importance that we be duly warned of the consequences of such a conception of the Church's chief purpose and of the duty of those who represent it. With only one of these consequences am I now concerned.

No doubt, an unapplied Christianity is a worthless Christianity. No doubt, too, all human interests have a claim to its help in restoring justice and purity, order and peace, wherever they have been disowned or violated. But in giving this help all wise Christians, whether priests or laymen, must guard against the danger of confounding the primary with the secondary aim of our religion. Now, the primary aim is to rescue the individual soul from the power and the guilt of sin and to train it for eternal life, and, in doing this, to make all men see the riches of God's grace in Christ Jesus. The secondary aim is to promote the well-being of man in this present life. I believe it to be one of the religious risks, or rather losses, of our day that so many among us do confound these two aims, and in their well-meant attempts to apply the Gospel to the more pressing secular questions of the hour do mistake its less for its greater aims. So far as this is true, there must be a corresponding decline in the higher forms of spiritual fervor, and for the reason that only habitual concentration of mind and soul upon the central verities and the primary purpose of our religion can produce and maintain them. No man can breathe the lower atmosphere which envelopes the secondary purpose of the Gospel, and yet rise to the frame of thought and feeling which can come only from the steadfast beholding of Christ as He manifests Himself in the execution of the foremost purpose that brought Him into the world. All Christian fervor is not of one kind or degree. Every sort of it, provided it have reason and conscience in it, as well as heat of motive and desire, is worth having. But there is a higher and a lower type of it. There is an enthusiasm which has in it only the light and warmth of the Sun of Righteousness, and there is another sort that bears upon it the mixed image of Christ and the World. Certainly the intense conviction, the concentrated energy, the burning purpose which repeats in us and in our preaching and work the attitude of St. Paul, when, amid a thousand disorders and miseries in society, in the State and among the unpaid and the half paid toiling masses of his time, all hungering for his word of power, he said: "This one thing I do." "I determined, when I came to you, not to know anything among you save Jesus Christ and Him crucified." This sort of enthusiasm for the Master is of more value to the Church and nobler in itself than another sort—good in its way and degree—that leads so many to say, in effect, "There are enough to preach Christ and to care for the Church in the old ways of dogma and ecclesiasticism, or it may be in the new ways of larger thought and ampler learning; but as for us, believing as we do in an 'applied Christianity' throughout the whole area of life and in a wider sphere of teaching than that offered by the needs of souls individually considered, or by a strict adherence to St. Paul's example, 'This one thing I do,' we shall put the main emphasis of our pulpit and pastoral work on the planting of the Gospel leaven in the art, the literature, the science, the politics, the social economy of our time, and in all kindred interests demanding readjustment and reform." Doubtless, in all this there is room enough and motive enough for the display of a high degree of fervor and energy ; but not the highest—not that, surely, which gave the Church its power of conquest in the great crises of its history; not that which, in her best ages, supplied the material for martyrs and defenders of the faith ; not that which has conveyed from Christ, the fountain-head, to the hearts of his disciples in every age what is known in modern phrase as the altruistic spirit which the latest science now admits to be the animating impulse of all true progress of the race toward a larger and better life.

Such, then, briefly, are some of the influences that hinder earnest Christian believing and earnest Christian living; and hence all highest forms of individual character and corporate achievement in these times; doubts of the reason ending in a suspension of faith; doubts of the conscience as to the doctrinal and ethical foundation of our religion; absorption in material ends and devotion to the life of the flesh; organized and perpetuated divisions that rend the body of Christ; unrealized ideals of the Church's authority and purity in matters of faith, polity and morals; and, finally, the substitution of the secondary for the primary aims of the Church and of the Gospel of Christ. These causes, to mention no other, sufficiently account, it seems to me, for the slackened sinews and abated fervor of our average Christianity.

Now, so far as this slackness and chill work themselves out, they will prove their presence by faint hearts, and irresolute wills, and these, in turn, will prove their presence by unmistakable signs. Wherever they are in a position to influence the Church's course, they will tell her, if some great effort is to be made, to wait for a more convenient season, not to be too impulsive or unduly enthusiastic—not to take the lead or accept a risk in the battle with the world, the flesh, and the devil ; if a grave doctrinal difficulty is to be settled they will tell her to soften the difficulty by softening the doctrine in dispute, to restore good feeling by a generous compromise, to bring together the contestants in the embrace of charity by diluting into airy nothings the differences which separated them; if a high standard of action is to be adopted at the expense of present ease and popularity, they will tell her how foolish it is to be over-scrupulous about people's beliefs or pleasures, so long as they create no scandal and disturb nobody's peace; and generally, that it is so much more agreeable all around to do what is expedient at the moment, rather than at the risk of pain and loss and struggle to do what the law of God and the judgment of the Christian ages declares to be right.

My main thought has been that the loss of earnestness in the Church is the loss of power, and I have named some of the influences that are to-day helping on both kinds of loss. If, then, we would stop the loss of power, we must stop the loss of that which conditions the power. How, then, are we to restore the Church to its normal fervor of conviction and earnestness in practical work? It cannot be attained by seeking it directly as an end. It can be reached only by aiming at the object which it will help us to attain. To take a parallel case, no man wins pleasure by seeking it as a direct object. If had at all, it must be the result of a line of action which aims at something else beyond and above it. All avowed pleasure-seekers are baffled and defeated. They alone find it who do their work, perform their duty without a thought of it. It comes in by a side wind and as a consequence of something else. So it is with earnest feeling and genuine enthusiasm. It is the product of deep and vivid thinking on the great truths offered to our faith, of the quickened sense of human needs and of God's ways of meeting them, of prayer for the awakening gifts of the Holy Spirit, and of the profounder sense of duty created by habitual meditation on the errand God has given us to do. The fire burns as mind and heart revolve around their proper centre and lay hold with increasing clearness and power on their proper objects. It is said that when a man has to cross an abyss by a narrow plank thrown over it, it is his wisdom not to look at the plank along which his path lies, but to fix his eyes steadily on the point in the opposite precipice at which the plank ends. It is by gazing at the object which he must reach, and ruling himself by it, that he secures to himself the power of walking to it straight and steadily. The case is the same in moral matters: No one will become really earnest by aiming directly at earnestness. Any one may become earnest by meditating on the motives and by drinking at the sources of earnestness. We may work ourselves up into a pretence, nay, into a paroxysm of fervor. We may chafe our cold hands until they are warm. But when we cease chafing, we lose the warmth again. On the contrary, let the sun come out and strike us with its beams, and we need no artificial chafing to be warm." Hot words and energetic gestures, for example, are just as much signs of earnestness—taken by themselves—as rubbing the hands or flapping the arms together are signs of warmth. They mean something only when expressing emotion already excited. No man is eloquent by trying to be so. The effort to be so deadens, not arouses the glowing thought, the deep feeling, the fervid tongue. And so a mere purpose or resolve to be earnest in the affairs of religion is absolutely fatal to it. What is true of an individual mind is true of the whole Church. No man leaps over a wall by simply tugging at his own hips. He must get a grasp on something outside of himself and lift himself by it. And so the source of the power that uplifts and kindles the soul to great thoughts, noble resolves, heroic actions for Christ and His Church is not in itself, but in Christ and His Church.

The light we are to let shine, the heat we are to spread are not our own, but Christ's; and they become ours only as we become His.

Now, it is a plain inference from all this, that, if we are to revive the Church's power, we must do it by going down to its source and using earnestly what God has given her, and not by opening up, faulting, and brooding over her imperfections. As of old, so now, she prevails by doing what she was sent to do through the earnest faith, the earnest living, the earnest work of her children; not by asserting for herself amid the clouded atmosphere and turbid currents of the world a purity and perfection which will be her heritage only in the future and heavenly state, where all divinely revealed ideals will be translated into everlasting realities. Let us, then—the ministers and stewards of Christ contend earnestly, as for the faith once delivered, so for the Church which is its pillar and ground, and for Christ, the Author and Finisher of both.

The past year has been one of hard work and many difficulties, and yet of unusual success for so young a parish, as will be seen from the income, which amounts to almost $10,000 00. The work has been entirely self-sustaining during the past two years, and we have been able to do some little for the general work of the Church.

An addition to the church building, for Sunday-school purposes, is to be erected immediately; a considerable portion of the needed funds having already been subscribed. A vested chair has been successfully established; and there has been a manifest increase of interest, with considerable growth of congregation. There is need of increased financial aid for the encouragement of those who have faithfully and earnestly supported the work thus far, which is, and must be for a considerable time, an essentially missionary work. The field is one which is worthy of special consideration on the part of Churchmen, in view of its needs and its promise of good.

Other organizations than those named above are; the Rector's Aid Society, St. Agnes' Guild, Daughters of the Temple, Knights of St. Andrew, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and Young Men's Improvement League.

On December 9th, the new Church, which is to be ultimately the chapel of the larger edifice, was formally opened for public worship. The chancel window is a memorial to the Rev. Dr. Fiske, whose last labors were given to this parish. The Sunday-school showed their appreciation of him, by donating a beautiful brass altar-cross in his memory. The prosperity of the parish is due very largely to his untiring and self-sacrificing labors. He laid the foundations well, and by his energy the new church was rendered possible, but he was not allowed to enter into the fruits of his labors. He has, however, left his enduring monument here.

This parish is composed almost entirely of people of very moderate means, to whom the building of a church and the present heavy debt are a weighty burden, hampering greatly-needed parish enterprises. People are coming here in great numbers, and the financial question is our only problem. There are souls, and we eagerly desire to care for them. If some layman, whom God has blessed "with this world's goods," would only come forward now and lift this incubus of a debt from St. Andrew's it would soon become a strong organization and a powerful influence for the Church in this section, and such beneficence would put us in a condition to shortly enter the ranks of the strong working parishes, able to do our part towards others needing a helping hand. Who will do this for us?

The parish has been without a rector during part of the year; has been heavily involved in debt; and has had almost insuperable obstacles to surmount. The contributions for other than parochial objects have, therefore, been irregular and limited. Every cent has been needed in meeting imperative local claims. A change for the better has taken place. In all respects the parish is improving; and in the future it will, it is hoped, stand squarely in line with other parishes in the support of all the institutions of the Church, both Diocesan and General. The parish pledges itself to make up its present deficiency for Diocesan Missions, by raising at least $100 00.

Miss Anna H. Maxwell, who died last September, bequeathed the sum of $10,000 00 for the endowment of two beds in St. John's Hospital, and to be entitled "St. Luke's Beds."

The indebtedness incurred by the erection of our parish church, has been reduced by generous Easter offerings, so that it now amounts to $17,000 00.

The Mission seems to be prospering greatly; there has been a constantly increasing attendance at the services, and the people seem to be heartily and thoroughly in earnest. Much of the bad odor which has surrounded the work here in the estimation of the neighborhood is being got rid of. The rectory, adjoining the church, has been thoroughly renovated, at a considerable cost, and the Priest-in-Charge is residing there. The church has been beautified and rendered more fitting for the worship of Almighty God, and the Sunday-school room provided with a piano and new seating arrangements. The increase of the Sunday-school, enrolled since October 1st, 1893, is nearly 300 per cent.

This report does not include any statistics from the Chapel at Windsor Terrace; St. Paul's gives $400 00 yearly toward the support of this work. The contributions for all purposes from the parish, this year, are the largest in its history. Parish and choir-rooms have been built next to the Church, and a vested choir was introduced on the first of May.

We have placed in the church since August, 1894, a brass altar cross, an oak credence-table, an oak litany-desk, an oak altar-book rest, a brass altar-rail, dossal hangings, two brass candlesticks, an oak rector's box at the door of church, a new altar service book, seventy-five new Prayer Books and seventy-five new Hymnals, and have built a platform of three steps and placed the altar thereon; we have also started a fund for the purpose of erecting a bell-tower, and placing a bell therein, on the front of the church. We have in this fund to date (April 1st, 1895), the sum of $54 55.

In April, the Rev. T. G. Losee, was appointed curate at St. Michael's, High Street, by ecclesiastical authority, where there is a larger field of work, and Mr. W. E. Sager, a lay reader, placed in charge of St. John's under the Rev. Dr. Alsop, Archdeacon.

Through some unaccountable mistake, the figures in last year's financial report are nearly twice the proper amount. In any comparison, therefore, between the present and the last report, allowance must be made for this, and also for $1,000 which was raised and applied outside the ordinary channels of income and expenditure. The offerings this year have actually been about $100 in excess of those last year.

The following additions have been made to the properties of the chapel, by gift or otherwise:—a new organ, costing $300; Revised Hymnals for congregation and choir; a sterling-silver chalice, and an altar book, as memorials.

A new Chapter—the Young Girls' Dorcas Society—has been added to the Parish Guild, proving a valuable adjunct to the parish forces.

Out of 110 confirmed persons, about 80 are actual communicants, of whom 70 received the Sacrament on Easter Day. The weekly early communion, a success in itself, has unmistakably increased the number of habitual communicants.

The parish list shows some 10 families removed from and 25 received into the parish during the year; making about 100 families in actual acknowledged connection with the parish.

Windsor Terrace is growing even more rapidly than last year. Since the annexation to Brooklyn, the influx of population has been constant and increasing. The fact that a large part of this increment is from other sections of Brooklyn, makes the process of relinquishing old parish ties and establishing new ones a more difficult matter than usual.

On January 10th 1894, the church edifice, built in 1828, was totally destroyed by fire, with all its contents, including organ, furniture, Sunday-school library, etc. The loss, although partially covered by insurance, has still imposed a serious burden upon the parish. Services and Sunday-school have been regularly held in the Reformed and Presbyterian Chapels, which were kindly offered for that purpose. A room is being fitted up in a part of the rectory, which will be used for services until the church can be rebuilt.

The church was destroyed by fire January 10th, 1894. From that time until August, the congregation worshiped in the Chapel of the Reformed Church, kindly offered for that purpose. During the summer, the rectory building was moved from its former location to the side of the church property fronting on Franklin Street, and the larger portion of it was remodeled into a Parish House, including a chapel and a Sunday-school room. Services were resumed here in October last, and have since been regularly held, with a good average attendance. The removal of this building leaves an advantageous site on Woolsey Street, on which it is purposed, eventually, to begin the erection of a new Church.

This report is for a period of thirteen months, to Easter week, 1895.

We are rapidly approaching the tenth year of our existence as an independant Mission. The organization was begun October 8th, 1885. There is little opportunity for rapid growth, but the place has great expectations. The King's Sons and Daughters have always been ready to relieve distress or suffering, and by their earnestness have substantially aided the Church work and worship. The Daughters have added very much to the beauty of the Chapel and Services by furnishing suitable altar-cloths to mark the Church seasons. We still suffer very much, during the summer, from the desecration of the Lord's Day. The attendance at Services has improved.

The present incumbent took charge March 1st, 1895. He can give only a general estimate of families, communicants, and money expended for Diocesan and General objects. He trusts that he will find ways and means for fulfilling the canonical obligations of the parish another year. A vested choir will be in place on Whitsunday, assisted by ten young ladies. The Holy Communion is celebrated every Sunday. During Lent, Miss White raised $200, for interior decoration of the church, outside the parish. There is much interest in Church work manifested by all, both young and old. The people and pastor were greatly encouraged by the Bishop's visit, May 26th, and words of commendation and exhortation, when twenty-six were confirmed. The parish has suffered many years from the lack of a resident rector, as the following list of week-day engagements will testify: Monday, Sisters of Bethany Guild, and Temperance Cadets; Tuesday, Choir Rehearsal; Wednesday, Confirmation Class, and Young Communicants' Class; Friday, Service and Bible Instruction, being the lesson of the Sunday-school for the next Sunday; Saturday, St. Alban's Guild, and the Guild of the Holy Cross (of twenty-one little girls, under the charge of Mrs. West); St. John's Guild also meets, monthly, on Friday afternoons.

The revised list of Communicants shows that there are fewer Communicants than for many years past. The Parish has been seriously crippled by the building of new Churches on the outskirts. We are thus left with fewer people than ever and the old and central portion of the parish, in which there is little or no growth. Under these circumstances, the parish is surely doing well in being able to hold its own. This it is doing, however, and is, besides, gradually increasing the fund for the erection of a Parish House. This fund now amounts to a little over one thousand dollars. The vestry of St. George's, Flushing, have very kindly presented us with the pulpit which, until recently, had been used in St. George's Church.

Owing to the fact that the mission has, for the last half year, been without the services of a resident minister, the work has not gone forward as it was hoped it would do, and some of the faithful workers are feeling discouraged. This drawback is, however, about to be removed, for the Bishop has appointed as resident Deacon the Rev. H. Newman Lawrence, who will commence his duties on Trinity Sunday.

By the efforts of the congregation, and with the aid of warm friends, a new church building has been completed, costing about $5,400 00; of this amount all but $2,500 00 has been raised by the sale of old Church property and the many favors of our friends.

There is no mortgage on church property at all—the $2,500 00 having been loaned to the congregation largely by a benefactor of one of our neighboring parishes, and also by a few of our own congregation.

ST. JOHN'S MEMORIAL CHURCH, IVANHOE PARK.—On the Feast of the Epiphany, January 6th, 1895, the rector opened the above Mission, at Ivanhoe Park, between Glendale and Ridgewood. The expenses connected with the services have been undertaken by Mr. Henry W. Meyer, in memory of his daughter, the late Miss Emma Sophie Meyer, who passed to the rest of Paradise on November 27th, 1894. It is the intention of Mr. Meyer to erect, on land already set apart, a stone church to her memory. The following statistics speak for the work already inaugurated: Services on Sunday evenings, 17; Friday evenings, 9; Holy Week, 6; Celebrations of Holy Communion, 2; Baptisms, 3;

Burials, 3. A class for Confirmation is awaiting the visitation of the Bishop. In the Sunday-school there are 5 teachers and 35 scholars. This is a most promising work in a rapidly increasing section.

We have also, in addition to the above, raised over $3,000 00, and with it completed the church. We have held our own without any assistance from the Archdeaconry, and to-day the Church is on a fine basis, with only one drawback and that the mortgage of $2,500 00. If this was paid, St. Luke's, Sea Cliff, would never need further aid, but could bestow it. A gentleman has promised to give $1,250 00 if the other $1,250 00 is raised; and it is hoped that, during the coming year, the church debt will be cleared.

On Sunday, September 2d, 1894, occurred the twenty-fifth anniversary of my assuming parochial charge of St. Luke's. In the sermon at the morning service, I gave a condensed history of this little chapel, from its building and consecration, in 1869, up to the present date. The Holy Communion was administered to over a hundred communicants, and a devout and attentive congregation entirely filled the edifice. The occasion was, altogether, a very happy one, both to pastor and people. The offertory was a liberal one, and several beautiful and appropriate gifts were presented to the officiating clergyman as memorials of the joyful event.

The lists of Communicants has been carefully revised. But even of one hundred and forty still returned as communicants there are thirty who have not actually communicated within the year. These, however, have no other religious affiliation, are resident in the place, and most of them take part at times in public worship.

A small but sweet-toned bell has been given for the Harbor Chapel, in memory of Annie Thurston, a young communicant who was accidentally drowned. A turret for the bell was designed and built by Mr. Hewlett Long, with materials given by Mr. Wilton W. Wood.

The organ-motor, a fund for which has been gradually accumulated by the Young Women's Auxiliary, was purchased and connected last summer, at a total cost of $250 00.

There are special funds invested or on hand as follows: Endowment, $410 00; Parish building, $275 00; Ladies' Rectory Fund Society, $322 73; Guild and Chapters, about $30 00.

It should be stated that the above statistics cover but a part of the conventional year. During nearly the whole of the winter the rector was unable to do any parish work, on account of a serious accident, and the vestry thought it expedient to close the Church. Early in May, however, the rector had so far recovered from the effects of the accident as to be able to resume his pulpit ministrations, with the prospect of a complete restoration to his accustomed health in the near future. His grateful acknowledgments are due to the neighboring clergy—especially the Rev. Messrs. Brydges, of St. Mark's, Islip, and Stephenson of St. Peter's, Bayshore,—for personal and ministerial services very freely and generously rendered by them during his enforced retirement.

The past year, in our parish, has been happy and prosperous. Our confirmation class of 1894, numbering sixteen, was the largest ever presented from this church alone. Another class is now awaiting our Bishop's visitation. Our services, as a rule, are well attended; and our Sunday-school shows a steady increase. Our Church property has been cared for so far as our means permitted, a substantial brick chimney for the church having been built, and the outside of the rectory painted. A fund for the erection of a parish building, at present amounting to only a small sum, will, we trust, in time, be augmented so as to provide this much-needed addition to our equipment.

Our parish societies have done effective work during the year. The Ladies' Aid Society has confined its efforts to parochial purposes. The St. Agnes' Guild, and the Willing Hands work for both parochial and missionary objects.

A barrel of clothing and Christmas gifts, was sent by the St. Agnes'

Guild to St. Cyprian's Mission, Darien, Ga. Two barrels of clothing were also sent by our ladies to the sufferers in Nebraska.

Our financial report has been made to correspond with the report submitted to the Archdeaconry of Suffolk, May 1, 1895, and covers the period from May 1, 1894, to May 1, 1895. Since that report was handed in, several contributions for parochial, diocesan, and general objects have been made, which will be included in our next annual statement.

The new church is completely finished, with the exception of a bell for the tower. The cost has been about $5,000 00. It is insured for that amount, and the rectory for $2,000 00. Our loss by the fire which destroyed the original St. Mary's, was about $3,000 00. The new building is somewhat larger and more convenient.

Clerical Reports.

THE REV. HENRY B. CORNWELL, D.D., reports as follows :

During the past year, I have officiated in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Brooklyn, of which I am Rector Emeritus, either by saying or assisting in Service, celebrating the Holy Communion, or preaching, fifteen times. I have also, as my health has permitted, assisted my brethren in the ministry of the Church, in Newburgh and vicinity, by preaching or otherwise.

THE REV. WM. T. FITCH, respectfully reports :

That, during July, 1894, he officiated at St. Augustine's Church, Brooklyn ; during August, at St. Matthew's Church, New York, and Grace, Jamaica ; September, October, and November, St. Augustine's Brooklyn ; and from December 15th until the present time, he has been in charge of the Church of the Epiphany, Ozone Park. Has also been in charge of St. Mary's, Laurel Hill, and has had Service there every Sunday at 3:15 P.M.

THE REV. WM. HYDE, reports :

That, during the past year, he has been doing temporary duty, chiefly in the cities of Brooklyn and New York.

THE REV. JOSHUA KIMBER, reports :

That, since the last Diocesan Convention, he has been engaged continuously with his duties as Associate Secretary of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society. He has ministered in public as follows : he has said Morning Prayer 20 times and assisted 10 times ; he has said the Litany 14 times ; he has celebrated the Holy Communion 22 times (of which 3 celebrations were for the sick) and said portions of the Office 37 times ; he has said Evening Prayer 24 times and assisted 10 times ; he has taken part in a number of missionary and other meetings and conducted the Noon-Day Prayers at the Church Missions House on numerous occasions ; he has presented 2 candidates for Ordination to the Priesthood and 4 to the Diaconate ; he has baptized 3 infants ; married one couple, and buried one person ; he has preached 50 sermons, and made 10 addresses—more than half of each being on missionary subjects. The foregoing services were rendered in the Dioceses of Central Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Long Island, Newark, New York and Pennsylvania.

THE REV. ISAAC VAN WINKLE, reports :

That, since the last Convention, he has resided in New York City ; has served regularly at the Laura Franklin Hospital, for children ; and has also officiated at other places.

APPENDIX III.

Rules of Order of the Convention OF THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.

I. At the opening of each Annual Convention, after Morning Prayer, Sermon, and the administration of the Holy Communion, the PRESIDENT shall take the chair ; after which the order of Procedure shall be as follows :

1. The Secretary, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or, of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

2. He shall call over the Churches entitled to representation, when the Lay Delegates shall present their certificates, which certificates shall be examined by the Secretary and a Committee of two members appointed by the Presiding Officer. Irregular or defective certificates, and certificates and documents referring to contested seats, shall be temporarily laid aside. The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called ; after which the certificates and documents laid aside shall be reported to the Convention, which shall decide on the admission of the deputies named therein.

3. A constitutional quorum (fifteen Clergymen and fifteen Delegations) being present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

4. The election of a Secretary and Treasurer, the former of whom shall have power to nominate an Assistant Secretary. ✠

5. The appointment of six Standing Committees by the President:

(1.) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, one Clergyman and two Laymen, reports from which Committee may be in order at any time during the session of the Convention.

(2.) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(3.) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(4.) On the Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(5.) On Canons, at least two Clergymen and two Laymen.

(6.) On the Church Charity Foundation and Other Benevolent Institutions, one Clergyman and two Laymen.

6. The appointment of Inspectors of Election; one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical Votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Votes—for the Standing Committee, the Missionary Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and the Deputies to the Federate Council.

7. Nominations for Elections, without remarks.
8. The Annual Address of the Bishop shall be at any time in order.
9. The receiving and referring, when necessary, of Reports, other than those of Special Committees, which may have been handed in to the Secretary.
10. Miscellaneous Business.

II. On the second day, the Order of Business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
2. Receiving Certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.
4. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Missionary Committee, the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention and the Deputies to the Federate Council.
5. The appointment of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and supplying vacancies, if any, in the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.
6. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to that officer.
7. Report of the Standing Committee.
8. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
9. Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.
10. Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.
11. Report of the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island.
12. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
13. Report of the Standing Committee on the Theological Seminary.
14. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
15. Report of the Standing Committee on the Salary of the Bishop.
16. Report of the Standing Committee on the Church Charity Foundation, and Other Benevolent Institutions.
17. Report of the Standing Committee on Christian Education.
18. Report of the Committee on the Cathedral Library.
19. Reports of Special Committees.
20. Miscellaneous Business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the Order of Business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

1. Reading and Approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the Certificates of the Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Reports not presented the preceding day, in order.
5. Miscellaneous Business.

IV. If the prescribed Order of Business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business on the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached and finished on the preceding day, and in the Order for that day prescribed; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex-officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot from among the Presbyters.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, clergymen belonging in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention; Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 9 A.M. to 12:30 P.M., and from 1:30 P.M. to 5 P.M., and when ordered by the Convention, from 7 to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated Elections by ballot shall be as follows :

The Secretary shall call the names of the Clergy and of the Parishes entitled to vote, who, as called, are to present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and as soon as practicable to canvass the same and report the results thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it shall appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened for the purpose of filling those which remain vacant; and if, on such second attempt, the purpose shall not be accomplished, the balloting may be resumed at the discretion of the Convention.

X. No Motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a Question is before the Convention, no Motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table, to postpone it indefinitely, to postpone it to a certain time, to commit it, or to amend it; which Motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a Motion to strike out the word "Resolved" shall have precedence of a Motion to amend, and if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the Resolution.

XII. All Amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed Amendment is under consideration, a Motion to amend the same may be made; no after Amendments to such second Amendment shall be in order.

XIII. A Motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A Motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate. A Motion to fix the hour or day to which the Convention shall adjourn takes precedence of a Motion to adjourn, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The Mover may withdraw a Motion or Resolution at any time before decision or Amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a Question under debate contain several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a Question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The Votes shall be taken by Ayes and Noes, and by Orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the Vote by Orders, it shall be the right of any member of a Delegation, who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation, to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A Question being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session, without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the Motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No Question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The Reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a Resolution or Resolutions for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President or another member, he shall immediately sit down unless permitted to explain. All Questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. All Questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate.

XXVI. The prescribed Order of Business shall not be departed from, nor shall any Rule of Order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

XXVII. The majority of a Quorum shall always be required to elect any Officer.
